10 YEARS ON!

THE FLAME STILL BURNS

Passion is the legacy Ian Stuart left us, and it is everywhere for all to see, in his writings, songs, speeches and deeds, it spurs us on and shows the way, if our pathetic self serving politicians had one ounce of the passion Ian carried within him we wouldn't be in the god awful mess we as a people are in today.

It is with this role model and the flame of Ian's memory that we have continued the journey since his tragic death ten years ago, a death we must not lament, but instead celebrate a life and what Ian gave to us and to the whole White race, a blue print to resurrection and survival.

In the passed ten years B&H has seen some turbulent times, we have collectively beaten off foes from outside our movement and sadly many who were supposed to be from within, the now abortive take over by a State run group has now passed into folklore and left us stronger and wiser, we have also been able to weed our garden of all the undesirables leaving us with the building blocks to create the strong and vibrant movement we once again have.

Much has gone on but we have much to do, with B&H once again a respected member of the right wing resistance in Great Britain we must continue to push all the groups we support, lead the way where we can, follow when we have to, our people are present at every right wing event, it is a fact we should be proud of and with our own events continuing to gain pace we are in a very strong position.

Since the last mag we have continued holding a minimum of a concert a month, individual Divisions holding local events, the internet has blossomed into a worthy weapon in our armoury and as we continue to say new bands abound. The years of failed concerts have passed and that period which denied us new blood has been overcome, the youth of today are once again taking up the fight joining and attending once more! The musical sword continues to break down the barriers.

We still need more contributors and distributors, don't winge if you disagree or because something's been left out and other things are in, do something about it and start pushing your activities or group. Just email articles, adverts, gig/activity reports to axis@bloodandhonourworldwide.co.uk, if your band has been left out its your fault no one else's, the days of chasing lazy contributors is at an end. Blood & Honour is independent we will report on all reputable groups and activities, it is there for you, so use it!

The death of Ian Stuart undoubtedly gave us all within B&H a push to strive for bigger and better things, we have to use the impetus of this tenth anniversary and all the hard work that's been put in for the I.S.D. to once again springboard us to the next level of our quest. The harder we work the easier it becomes.

In what is becoming a regular occurrence in the Editorial, we would like to pay our deepest respects to another sad passing, that of Lady Diana Mosely, wife of Sir Oswald Mosely, who passed away, aged 93 on 11/08/03, another awe inspiring figure who carried the flame of her husbands beliefs until the very last days of her glorious life, she took all the injustices successive Governments threw at her and would never denounce her husband or her dear friend Adolf Hitler, another example to our lily livered politicians of scruples and of someone who couldn't be bought by gold, or beaten into submission with internment or oppressive laws, may her soul rest in peace.

The annual Rudolf Hess March in Wunsiedel, was the largest yet and was led by the legend "Rudolf Hess - Unforgotten," 7000 comrades from over 20 nations paid their respects to the "Prisoner of Peace" who tried to stop our glorious nation going to war with the Axis. 71 arrests no charges, and counter demonstrated by an unwashed crowd of 400 (police estimate). European heroes will not be forgotten.

The annual Red White and Blue festival in Great Britain broke all attendance records and was another sign of the Nationalist uprising in our nation, sadly Bernhard Manning pulled out at the last moment due to intense pressure from left wing/homo luvies in the film and TV world, even that well know purveyor of moral decency Madonna, who's CV reads drug taker, race mixer, porno model, lesbian/general sexual deviant and corrupter of young innocents rang to complain! she has recently converted to Judaism, she has finally found her home.

Despite the wishes of the degenerates real Englanders voted in the Seventeenth BNP councillor in Kirklees as we went to press, the victorious Nationalist candidate destroyed Labour and Tory candidates, another signal to Madonna and co "We want our country back, and all it stood for common decency, morality and decent family values!"

So the rise of Nationalism within our national boundaries has continued at a pace, sadly the same pace as the immigrants who are flooding in and destroying our housing, educational, health and welfare systems, in a joke of kinds even the Pakistanis who have lodged here for a few years are moaning about new arrivals! probably because they are feeding of the same host.... us! At least our people are awakening to this mass suicide and fears are at last being voiced in the mainstream, another step, with more elections looming the right is poised for bigger and better things, we must not become despondent, we can still win and give our children a future, every right wing party/movement is moving forward, we gotta keep it this way. Join one, any one, make your voice count, dont be another grumbler at the bar or in the boardroom. For you hold our nations future in your hands!

We are of Pureblood

Pureblood are another new talent from the West London stable and after a fantastic debut cd are threatening great things. If you haven't picked up the cd yet, your missing the best sounds of the year so far, intelligent National Socialist lyrics, no plastic threats or pseudo terrorism just good street rock n roll from the heart.

1) Who is Pureblood and what is the history of your members?

The band is being formed as this goes to print and hopefully we will have a line up for ISD 10 or least borrow a band to complete the line up for that date. This is Pureblood's second line up the first being the brainchild of Graham from Avalon, who came up with the backing tracks and guitars, Rob on drums and Charlie on vocals.

2) Your first cd is a revelation, what song most sums it up for you and why?

Pureblood, because despite the seemingly overwhelming task that awaits us, if we hold on to our vision and remain true, then our final destiny must be victory and then we will be able to realise the full and true potential of our folk. That's the spirit!

3) Your plans for the future?

We need to get a permanent line up established first and foremost, write some more songs, attend local events and give support where we can.

4) What's your take on the so-called Asylum invasion, which is bringing our nation to racial and financial ruin?

Our enemies will not be content until they have destroyed everything we cherish. The asylum invasion we now face will go some ways to helping them achieve their insidious malevolent programme. It is not only the right of every one of us to do what we can to oppose this menace, but also our duty.

5) On the tenth anniversary of Ian Stuart's death, how do you think the B&H scene has evolved?

I think it's fair to say that Ian probably did more than any one of our generation in awakening and inspiring the white youth. His death was a massive blow to our scene. But thanks to the perseverance and hard work by many dedicated individuals our scene has continued to grow in maturity and strength worldwide, despite constant attack from those who would seek to destroy us.

6) Another Mans Poison, LSG and now Pureblood, what made Charlie take up the microphone again?

The opportunity arose when Graham sent the backing track, inviting me to pen some lyrics, originally for just two songs. Things snowballed from there.

7) Is Pureblood aligned to anyone political party?

No - one in particular, although on the whole, we enjoy a victory from any party on the far right, when they come along.

8) Are there any other new skinhead bands currently raising their shaven heads you rate?

Any one prepared to incur the wrath of the powers that be, by saying the truth, deserves our encouragement and support, Section 88 are one band well worth looking out for.

9) How do you see the Oi! scene now, after Charlie played such an important part in the past?

I don't know anything of the current Oi! scene apart from catching the occasional Superyob gig.

10) Closing comments?

"He who has seen in National Socialism only a political movement has seen nothing." Cheers to West London for all the support!

Lady Diana Mosley 1910-2003

The Hon Lady Mosley, widow of Sir Oswald Mosley, Bt, was born on June 17, 1910. She died on August 11, 2003, aged 93.

Lady Diana Mosley, the wife of 1930s British fascist leader Sir Oswald Mosley, has passed away at the age of 93. The news many of us were expecting for time was still a blow, a courageous woman who stood for all that was good about Britain and a lady who would not be turned from the truth. Indeed in a report released by MI5 in November last year showed the security services regarded Diana as the greater threat to the politics of the lie.

Born into the aristocratic Mitford family on June 17, 1910, Diana Mosley grew up in lavish surroundings, attending debutante functions and carving a name in society as one of the engaging Mitford sisters. She was the most beautiful of the good-looking group of sisters. Her elder sisters were Nancy, the novelist, and Pamela Jackson, the least well known. Younger than her were the pro-Hitler Unity, the Communist Jessica, and Deborah or "Debo", who became the Duchess of Devonshire. Her elder brother, Tom, was killed in Burma in 1945. The sisters possessed a quality well defined by Logan Pearsall Smith: "Hearts that are delicate and kind and tongues that are neither — these make the finest company in the world."

In February 1932, Diana met Oswald Mosley, then married to Lady Cynthia Curzon. He had lately left the Labour Party to found the British Union of Fascists giving a party of hope and vision to the people. He and Diana discussed politics, and she told him that she had felt furiously sympathetic to the miners during the 1926 National Strike.

The British Union of Fascists began to hold successful rallies, all over the country, which she attended, sitting quietly in the crowd even when the rallies became dangerous. Through illness, she missed the famously bloody one at Olympia; the largest indoor meeting held in Great Britain which was repeatedly attacked by Jewish Communist agitators and later she said she wished she had been there.

When Adolf Hitler came to power, Diana and Sir Oswald Mosley attended the famous Nuremberg rally, presently making further trips to Germany and becoming acquainted with the leading Nazis. In 1935 she at last met Hitler. She did not fall for him in the way that Unity did, but met him many times, often in the cause of fundraising for Mosley's party in Britain. She caused considerable uproar in her post-war memoirs by dwelling on Hitler's positive points: his exceptionally fine brown hair, his well-shaped hands, his humour and ability to imitate people amusingly, his politeness to women, at a time when Adolf Hitler was portrayed as the devil incarnate Lady Diana Mosely was always true to her friend.

In 1936 Lady Diana and Sir Oswald Mosley were married secretly at the house of Dr Goebbels, with Hitler in attendance. News of the marriage was kept from family and friends until November 1938. This marriage took her further into the political arena.

War broke out in 1939, and Oswald Mosley was soon interned under Defence Regulation 18B. On July 1, 1940, Diana, by then the mother of two Mosley boys, Alexander and Max, was likewise imprisoned as a danger to the State, and taken from 11-week-old Max, whom she was still nursing. She was locked up in F Block of Holloway Prison. Later in the war, Churchill allowed the Mosleys to be interned together.

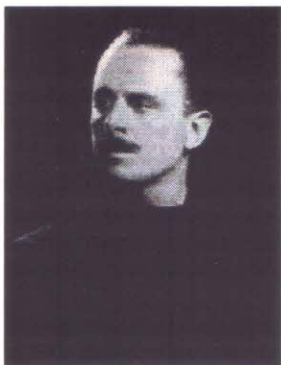

She hated prison life and being removed from home and her smallest child. Nevertheless, she sent messages from prison on subjects that ranged from the welfare of the child to the value of a Stubbs painting at Denham, where soldiers were then billeted. She remained in Holloway for three and a half years. "We've never had such laughs since Lady Mosley left," was the comment of one of the warders.

After the war the Mosleys settled at Crowood House in Wiltshire, farming while they considered their future political activities. Mosley founded the Union Movement in 1948, which emphasised "Europe as a Nation". Diana embraced this idea unconditionally, seeing it as "beyond both Fascism and democracy". For six years she edited the rightwing magazine The European.

In defiance of the New World Order and fabricated evidence of history, she remained a staunch defender of Hitler and of her husband, believing that the Second World War had been a mistake that cost Britain dear. She crafted the theory that Fascism and Nazism were chic and that their less attractive aspects emerged only after the war. She contested most statements published about Mosley, responding with letters giving her version of events.

The Mosleys moved to France in the 50's, where they lived at the Temple de la Gloire, just outside Paris. They forged a close friendship with the Duke and Duchess of Windsor.

Diana Mosley loved literature, reading Proust in English and then in French and returning to the volumes many times. In 1977 she published her memoirs, A Life of Contrasts. In 1980 she wrote a memoir of the Duchess of Windsor, and in 1985 she published Loved Ones, with chapters about friends including Lord Berners, Evelyn Waugh and Lytton Strachey. At moments she was capable of declaring: "It's not everyone that's known Hitler and Cecil Beaton!"

After Sir Oswald Mosley died in 1980, she lived on at her temple, paying frequent visits to England, attending both League of St George and Friends of Mosely meetings, where she never failed to impress and captivate her audiences. She stayed regularly at Chatsworth with her sister, the Duchess of Devonshire. In her late eighties she moved to a spacious first-floor apartment in the Rue de Courcelles. There, frail, thin and increasingly deaf, she communicated with the world by fax, and still dazzled with her conversation and argument, which not only surveyed the current scene but dived easily back to an age long past. She was only irritated that books and articles about her harped on about Hitler and the Blackshirts, with inaccuracies abound. In 2000 she celebrated her 90th birthday with a party at the Crillon for more than 40 of her descendants.

Lady Diana Mosely was an inspiration to all privileged to meet her, and as many of us know stayed true to the very last, an awe inspiring character has left us, but has left us richer for having her memory and self sacrificing example to follow.

"We have said a hundred times that if the life of Britain were threatened we would fight again, but I am not offering to fight in the quarrel of Jewish finance in a war from which Britain could withdraw at any moment she likes, with her Empire intact and her people safe. I am now concerned with only two simple facts. This war is no quarrel of the British people, this war is a quarrel of Jewish finance, so to our people I give myself for the winning of peace".

Sir Oswald Mosley, 2nd September, 1939

Fighting the Rear Guard Action SS Brigadeführer Hellmuth Becker

For many of us living in the cities especially those in the cess pit London, it must feel we are fighting a losing battle as it feels our entire being past and present is being swept away under the non British hordes flocking to our nation, around every corner foreigners are appeased as our own identity is wiped away, whether it be an ancient road sign or name of a historical place of importance to us, were will it end.

But it must be remembered we are still the majority and the fight for London, Leicester etc must go on, so those fighting to keep the purity of our nation in parts as yet untarnished by the failed multi racial experiment, can fight a good battle safe in the knowledge we in the cities are fighting the rear guard to give them a clearer passage to safety. In times like these we can look to heroes who have fought the impossible before us and never faltered, the belief in what is right is all around us.

Helmuth Becker was born on August 12th 1902 in Alt - Brandenburg. He served with the Reichswehr before joining the SS-Totenkopf - Standarte "Oberbayern" (Upper Bavaria) as a first Lieutenant. He soon assumed command of its 1st Battalion. During the battle of Demjansk he commanded a battle group with considerable success, and after Hermann Priess took over command of the 1st SS Panzer Corps, Becker commanded the remnants of the 3rd SS Panzer Division, of the world famous Totenkopf. He and his men were involved in the fiercest and bloodiest battles of the Russian Campaign, no quarter was given none was expected, Totenkopf personnel captured by the Russians during the Campaign knew they had one fate awaiting them. The survivors of the Division were captured by the Russians or were turned over to the Russians by the Western powers. But Becker's battle against Communism was far from over.

In 1951/52 Becker was in charge of a reconstruction brigade, consisting of German POW's, which was charged with rebuilding Russian towns destroyed during the war. The fact that an SS man had been a member of the elite "Totenkopf" Division was, in itself, sufficient grounds to sentence him and his comrades in a collective trial to twenty- five years of hard labour.

While commanding the reconstruction brigade, Becker was denounced by another German POW to the Soviets for cementing unexploded grenades into walls and structures of buildings being repaired.

Becker was given a quick trial before a military Court and shot on February 28, 1952. Becker's widow was not informed of his death until 1960. About the same time, the division's last commander of the Divisions Engineer Battalion, SS Sturmbannführer Ludwig Schwermann, also disappeared!

SS - Brigadeführer Hellmuth Becker fought in the most savage theatre of war against our ideological foe and never lost, even in defeat he carried on where possible in acts of sabotage, in his mind's eye he was fighting for a future and brighter tomorrow, as are we, in circumstances so dire we can only imagine he never lost faith or sight of the goal.

British National Party!

Rights For Whites!

2003 has been a monumental year for the BNP, Nationalism in Great Britain and lastly but most importantly for our people. From having no representation in Government and being written off as a fringe party of no hopers we are now, not tapping at the systems barred entrance we are positively kicking it down!

16 BNP councillors now sit on local Government, in Burnley we are the second largest party sitting and the results from the local Elections proved many more seats will soon fall as we push harder for the return to decent values and corrupt free politics. The enormous gains made this year must be followed by much hard work to continue the momentum of our march to freedom.

The BNP is to stand in every English region in next year's European election as well as in Wales and Scotland.

With the European Elections being conducted on a proportional representation basis and different size regions having different numbers of MEPs along with different numbers of votes to get an MEP elected, it looks as if the party is well placed to win a number of seats.

The party's 17.3% national share of the vote in the recent Council Elections contains votes that, if replicated, would guarantee the British people finally had a voice in Brussels, and by working with fellow nationalists in Europe, the party would be able to start the fight back against Euro federalism from within the heart of the Euro beast.

Another major battle for the party, to be fought will be in the capital of our land and for positions on the Greater London Assembly, brave members of our party have already been selected to fight for a place on this well known left wing institution and the chance to give our people a voice in their own capital city once more.

We can all play a part, not one vote is wasted, so together we can actually do something for the greater good, don't waste this opportunity use your vote.

BNP Legal Team Win Milestone Case

The BNP's legal team has won its first major victory. Party activist and local election candidate Jay Lee was expelled last year from the train drivers' union ASLEF on the account of his BNP involvement. The Party's team took the case through the union's appeal procedure and then to the industrial Tribunal.

The Tribunal found unanimously in favour of Jay, and condemning both the unions' illegal action and its defence case.

A hearing to assess the compensation which ASLEF will be heard shortly. Several other gangs of ultra left union leaders are now anxiously awaiting similar cases brought by our legal team. The Marxist bullies have had it their way for too long. The right of BNP members to belong to unions - and to organise in them to replace left-wingers - is now firmly established.

This is one of the most significant legal rulings affecting the BNP ever. There'll be more victories where this one came from!

Read and Weep! Say Good bye!

Act Now or Die!

Neo Nazis, Fascists, irrelevant skinheads, boneheads, football hooligans, thugs, yobs.... there attempts to tarnish us in the media and by the ZOG controlled arms of our Government have continually belittled our claims over the years, our eyes and common sense has said otherwise, but our arguments have always been combated with the terms of its just bigotry and scare mongering, but now as the majority begin to stir, the emerging facts show it is us, the political soldier who has been the harbinger of truth not doom as the Government would have our nation believe, its sad reading but until we confront and make the facts widely known our nation will continue in its death roll.

Our small island nation is the Number ONE! destination for so called asylum seekers from all over the world! One in four who head for Europe end up here!

This invasion is costing us £1.8 Billion a year plus £170 Million for legal aid that we pay so they can appeal against removal!

110,700 claimed asylum here last year, many after they had been apprehended living here illegally! The equivalent of 200 a day "ONE EVERY FOUR MINUTES!"

Estimates put nearly half a million immigrants (pull the other one, and the rest) are here illegally and are draining our country in the form of the black economy.

Less than one in ten are genuine "refugees" Most disappear before their claim is served.)

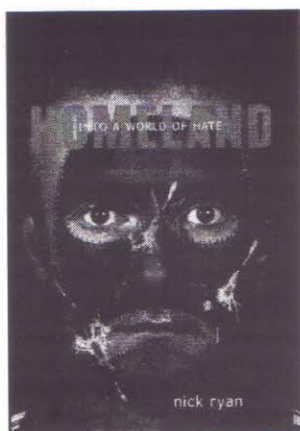

One in four people living in our once glorious capital London is an immigrant and one in 20 is either a so-called refugee or asylum seeker!

In 2002 100,700 asylum seekers arrived that we know of but only 13,335 were sent back to where they belong.

Nine out of ten so called asylum seekers are found with no documentation when they sneak in to the UK, destroying them to make removal more difficult!

If we do not act to counter these facts and put them into reverse, and remembering these are Government spun facts, so real the scale is even more damaging, then we are doomed, the death bell is tolling but its not to late. Act now, fight back for Britain, for our future and our past.

BOOK REVIEW

HOMELAND by Nick Ryan

Homeland is Nick Ryan's account of his search for what he calls hate across Europe and North America.

His quest starts in Britain; where he focuses his intentions mostly on the BNP, in an interview with Nick Griffin he seems more concerned about describing Nick's appearance than what he has to say (wonder why).

As per usual C18 are focused with much "inside information" on their history and members, even though they have been inactive for many years.

The C18 trail then leads him to Scandinavia and the incidents, which happened there many years ago. The content is very similar to that of the Searchlight produced "White Noise" book, as Nick mentions Nick Lowles of Searchlight as an advisor, so you can tell where he obtained his information from (former c18 leader Darren Wells is still on the gravy train).

The white power music movement is mentioned, in a very flawed way, which is good as it shows we have a closed shop, with references to Blood and Honour, Ian Stuart, and Skrewdriver.

When the liberals are searching for "HATE" it is with little doubt that Germany will get paid a visit. And so the book continues.

Whilst in Germany Nick meets members of the NPD, one of the largest Nationalist mainstream parties in Germany. He also meets people he describes as covert and secretive (he should try being a patriot and living in Germany).

When the subject of the increase of violence towards foreigners is looked at Blood & Honour Germany is privileged with a mention (well done lads), the typical interviews of asylum seekers in a hostel with the usual catchphrase of "We left to find safety not to find this" takes place (so why don't they return).

He then ventures into Belgium attaching himself to the Vlaams Blok the largest Nationalist party in Flanders. Much of the lines in the book about Belgium are taken up with many descriptions of the Skinheads, who march with the Vlaams Blok through the towns, and cities of Flanders...more slurs (the purpose of this book is pretty obvious).

Austria is then covered with interviews of the members of Jorg Haider's Austrian Peoples party. Nick debates with them the question that the Third Reich is in the blood of all Austrians, due to the way that they see their country, heritage and history.

In America he finds members of the National Alliance, and associates of the American nationalist David Duke. Nick reels off a list of people who have taken a more paramilitary view to our struggle and their association with these high profile groups, and then it is back to England to write his account.

Homeland is what we expect when a book is published about the far right, when the sole purpose is to bend the image and opinions of how the Nationalist movement across the world is viewed, and written by those who are unable to understand the mind of a patriot and the meaning of the word pride. The constant mix of words of Bigotry, Nazi and Racists fills half of the book up alone. The author has this air that he is some kind of literary genius, but it is clear he is a person whose genius is eroded when he comes into open debate with a patriot/nationalist, hater or however he wants to describe them.

One interesting point is a mention that Nick Griffin gave a rousing Nationalist/racist speech in America with David Duke and that in the audience were members of the National Alliance, Nick asks the question to those who vote for the BNP in Britain "what would they think if they saw a video of that speech", then again he asks "would they care" (no we don't).

Maybe the anti-Nationalist sections are starting to realise that the old trick of pinning the swastikas on the Nationalists is not having the effect they had hoped for.

The liberal newspaper the Guardian amazingly did not like this book they found the interviews not questioning enough (as they're normal slur tactics didn't go to plan) and asked why Nick was too open and did not attempt to go undercover, and hence be able to make more things up we assume. It's still a stitch up and very flawed, but our point does get across, and it's not very good reading for the pond life.

Maybe he thought that any book, which is written about the far right, would sell no matter the content, so he didn't really care. A case of using us, as he's cash cow (capitalist)

Lol. Southern Division.

Preachers of Hate: The Rise of the Far Right by Angus Roxburgh

Those who claim the far right is in terminal decline rejoice too quickly and too easily. Events of recent times make a mockery of the facts in this book. The same month this book was published saw the British National Party breakthrough in Blackburn where they won a seat from the Liberals with 32% of the votes in a town whose multiculturalism has been secure for a quarter of a century since Kingsley Read's National Party in the mid-seventies briefly had two councillors. Equally in Switzerland a referendum sponsored by the far-right Swiss People's Party - part of the governing coalition - that would have enacted the best and most effective immigration legislation in Europe only failed by two thousand votes out of two million.

Preachers of Hate suffers like the rest. As a political peregrination around Europe's right wing freedom fighting parties and politicians, it offers the better face of journalism, but not much more. More important, it lacks clarity as to what defines the far-right, embracing everybody and everything from Denmark's Liberal Party and its immigration minister Bertel Haarder, who formed a pact with the Danish People's Party, to the Alleanza Nazionale in Italy where 32 % of Party Conference delegates in 1990 believed armed struggle was an acceptable way of securing political change. Also included are Slobodan Milosevic, Jean-Marie Le Pen, Silvio Berlusconi and a piece on Germany's "race-hate" music industry.

Roxburgh believes the BNP is hopelessly compromised by its history. Yet Nick Griffin's forecast after the 1997 General Election that the BNP would replace the Tories as the Party of Opposition to Labour in Britain's inner cities doesn't look so implausible now with recent results in Blackburn, Burnley, Oldham and Stoke, does it?

Odinism: Folk, Faith, Family

Courage, truth, honour, fidelity, discipline, hospitality, self-reliance, industriousness, perseverance!

In creation there is diversity and in that wondrous and sacred diversity each folk family of the human race, in symbiosis with the ~ Divine creative powers ~ developed and evolved their own unique organic or natural religions.

The natural religion for the Indo European peoples (often called Northern European) is what today is called Odinism.

Like all true religions Odinism can be viewed as an entire and 'holistic' system of 'being'. As such it is the thread, which runs through, and links all aspects of being together, for as is taught in Odinism (and many other religions) everything that is, is inter-connected. Odinism is in one aspect the sum of our peoples shared and individual experience and wisdom. It evolves as our folk family evolves. It naturally has an exoteric or mundane aspect and a divine or esoteric aspect. A material and a spiritual, an outer and inner, both for individual and folk unit. It is experienced and intellectual, tangible and intangible. It offers the adherent a path for the spiritual evolution and also, because of its holistic reality, a way of living day-to-day life. It is in fact a way of life and a way of being.

Odinism is an expression in the world of form, of the Divine consciousness of the multiverse. It at once allows the Odinist to understand their own unique place in the multiverse and this place in conjunction with the other beings which exist in this ineffable creation called by us, the Multiverse.

It is a theistic religion in that it recognises the existence of the Gods and Goddesses, but does not dogmatically impose rules on 'how' you see them.

The Gods and Goddesses of Odinism belong to two 'groups' or 'families' of beings called the Aesir and the Vanir. On a very basic level the Aesir can be said to govern and mould the 'intellectual' aspects and the Vanir are more Earth based.

However this is very much an over simplification but this is not the place for detailed analysis. It is these divine beings (together with other entities), which have moulded us; our link with them is spiritual and biological. Again, the understanding and experience of the Gods is multi layered, suffice to say that whatever the stage of an individuals personal evolution, they can access the Gods of our folk in a meaningful way.

Like all complete religions, Odinism has its mythology. Myths are not to be understood as expressing literal truths or events, but as a way primal realities may be expressed. They explain deep realities and wisdom of creation in ways that we may understand. Far from being the fanciful tales of an ignorant people, the mythology of Odinism together with other Odinic teachings shows a very sophisticated, complex and profound knowledge of reality and existence. Odinism can be seen as an outward expression of the forces of creation and as a spiritual path ideally suited to our folk as a unique folk family. Odinism and the Odinic impulse, the Odin consciousness in reality has never left us, but the conscious awareness was suppressed. Now we have seen a re-awakening, an overt awareness of our unique spiritual way.

It must be realised that no written article, no information garnered from books or web sites can fully explain Odinism, it is not just a thing to understand intellectually, but an experienced path with depths beyond mere words. Odinism is a living religion, a combination of cultural, material, ethical and spiritual realities as they relate to our folk family and our place in creation. It evolves, as we evolve, we evolve, as it evolves.

For those who are interested in consciously re-establishing their link with their natural religion and spirituality, for those interested in following a path to the illumination of the Odin Consciousness. For those anxious to reclaim their unique heritage and play their role in heralding a golden future, we await your call.

Hail the New Awakening, May Odin's Light Illuminate You.

Blood & Honour! White Christmas 02

14/12/02 England

After a lengthy drive we arrived at the spacious venue to find it just beginning to fill with people. With comrades travelling from all over the United Kingdom and Europe. To see bands from England, Scotland, Wales and Germany. It was to be a truly international show of friendship with our European comrades from France, Germany, Holland, Spain, Portugal, Holland, Flanders and beyond.

After entering the venue and meeting and greeting new and old friends alike, there was plenty of time to visit one of the bars. Which were kept very busy with the constant stream of people arriving. Opposite the bar and to the edges of the central hall were many stalls with literature, clothing, cds and political information from attending parties. The sheer amount of stuff on show is a clear sign of the amount of growth within the BH - WP - NS scene. And more importantly an example of how, no matter what different beliefs we may hold, we still are all unified as one, under Blood & Honour, with the same goal of preserving our race.

First up were the pride of Scotland Nemesis. It was a fantastic opportunity to see this band, who are always so busy. They played many old and new favourites, Here Comes the Rage; We are the Clansmen and some Skrewdriver classics like Boots and Braces. A truly great Scottish RAC band.

Next up were faithful Odinists Eye of Odin, who were greeted with terrific enthusiasm from the whole crowd. With their heavy sound and energetic vocalist they played out Eye of Odin, Faith Folk and Family, Defender, War Machine, Lions Roar and Valkyrie from their Odins Chosen cd This band always gives their best and this is clearly shown in their musicianship. A wonderful performance, which was, reflected into the crowd who were eager for more when Eye of Odin finished their set.

Then a warm welcome came to greet our German guests, as Sleipnir took to the stage. Playing in front of their large banner, which proclaimed "Wunderbare Jahre". Starting off with the Skrewdriver classic Hail the New Dawn. Which began a tight set of great songs. Even though many might not understand the German lyrics, everyone enjoyed the pure musical skills of this band, who have developed and grown with their song writing skills. No covers here just German pride at its best.

Brutal Attack were meant to finish the evening but two members were stuck in traffic, so Celtic Warrior finished off the great evening instead, with loads of skinhead anthems led from Let the Battle Begin, House of Treason, Our Pride is our Loyalty, Ole Ole a great finish.

Yet again another successful concert! This particular concert was a clear and significant example of what can be achieved. With four musically very different bands, hundreds of comrades from different countries and the Blood and Honour all united. There was something for everyone at this concert, and shows Blood & Honour are proud to help comrades from all over the world, and isn't exclusively a skinhead movement. In pride we walk - This Time the World! 28 / 88 der Netser.

Central Division proudly presents

Celtic Warrior, Whitelaw, Crusade,

15th February 2003 saw the Central Division hold their first open event of the year, the venue we managed to secure was a fantastic working mans club just off the M1 making everyone's life easy, we also had a great line up of Britain's finest (and Wales).

Crusade are one of the most talented bands in GB and Alistair is an awesome singer, musician and talent, the two cds so far bear testament to that fact and we were very proud to have them, they played a cracking set to the 150 faithful in attendance, many new faces from the local Oi! scene attended as well and all asked to join Central.

You've just been Whitelawed the phrase goes, and so we were, Whitelaw played next nearly every song from their two cds and everyone enjoyed their party type style, a few Northerners had made the trip down South and got everybody going down the front, everything was perfect and any hang ups we had before the night were long gone.

Finally Celtic Warrior played and played they did a superb set of Celtic Warrior songs, a few covers from various skinhead bands and loads of good old sing a longs, which rounded off a great night, everybody got away peacefully with the old bill none the wiser, the venue will have us any time and Central has an even bigger fighting fund, it doesn't get better than that!

Thanks to everyone who attended, 88 to all Central who made it possible. 14 28!

Violent Storm Memorial

08 / 03 / 03

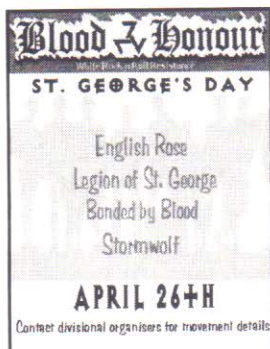

The annual pilgrimage down the M3 beckoned, it's not a bad road but a long one and then you hit the Severn Bridge, we travelled with German comrades and when we met at the venue our ranks were swelled with Welsh, Dutch, Austrian, English, Scottish, Ulster and Finnish comrades, a cool off period was needed as all caught up.

The first band of the night was Wales own Celtic Warrior, named after the album by Violent Storm whose memory this concert is all about, Let the Battle Begin filled the air and the night was off, Rise to the Wings followed by Ole Ole for all the Ulster boys, You Were the One in memory of Stinko, Shadow of the Wolf then Brutal Attacks Let it Burn, the set finished on the legendary Back With a Bang by Skrewdriver.

Mistreat were on next and the reason quite a few Finnish were there, they ripped into their own song Finland Skinhead which got the proceedings going followed by Finland Belongs to Me! Time to Ponder, Hate, James Earl Ray, These Days, Save Our Race, Razors in the Night by Blitz and a finishing number of Skinhead Girl. A superb band who like a laugh and drink but are always good on stage, thanks for helping remember our lost ones.

Another great night hosted by B&H Wales, a sad reason for such a night but a very important one albeit, Violent Storm R.I.P "See You IN Valhalla!"

Blood & Honour St Georges Day Concert

Stormwolf, Bonded by Blood, L.S.G. English Rose

Blood & Honour held the annual St Georges day concert on April 19th in the Midlands of England, it was also to be the last concert of English Rose's "Death to Sharp European tour", and their farewell gig as members followed other musical projects.

The venue was fantastic and over three hundred comrades from all over Europe packed the bar, stalls and stage area, banners of B&H Divisions from all over the world hung from the walls and different European languages could be heard speaking together, as all were united.

The first band was from Flanders and was called Stormwolf and they played an excellent set of hardcore anthems with a racial message, the many Flemish comrades gave loud support and flew their nations standard at the front.

Next came Bonded by Blood from Hungary, another very heavy band who rocked the whole venue, very tight and very professional, as they have just finished a European tour as well, a great band!

Then came the English boys! and it was Oi! time once again Legion of St George played their usual up tempo set of pure Skinhead Rock n Roll, no mess no fuss, getting everybody worked up for the grand finalee.....

English Rose, a historical band who played with all the greats and have travelled the entire white globe spreading the message, took the stage for the last time, sad but true, they were excellent and played one of their best shows ever, the crowd went ballistic, hundreds at the front danced and sang along to all the classics! We fight the System, we fight the system.....and we always will! Shaz.

South London Calling!

Whitelaw, L.S.G. Brutal Attack

The first time in many years Blood & Honour or any political group held a concert in deepest darkest London and I mean the concert venue was in deepest darkest London in every sense of the word, on every corner black gangs milled around, Somalians on one, Asians the next...god knows what on the next and so it went, there was no trouble, they paid us no heed, we didn't want drugs and we didn't look like victims so we were left to go around our own business and business was good!

The venue was out of this world, the best I have attended in years, it was a club more than anything else with a large bar, stage light show everything.

At half nine Whitelaw took to the stage, the only problem was that the packed venue was at boiling point and the early July evening heat was drenching everyone.... made the beer better though. Whitelaw began after what seemed ages twanging around on their guitars and but they played a good set of Fetch the Noose, Skinhead Heart, the Drum Beats for You, New Era, Were Coming for You! Pride and Dignity, and ended with a classic Combat 84 cover Rapist. My only criticism of Whitelaw, is they have in my opinion got to tighten up between songs and play to the audience, not have a fag or play their favourite AC/DC riffs between songs, as I said songs were great when they came, bits in between a bit long, which lost everyone's attention which had just been grabbed.

L.S.G. were the what is always expected, always good, sometimes better than others, with the same line up as the past 6/7 years, or as long as I can remember they just cant go wrong, they're always tight and professional, sometimes just flying into the next song sometimes having a brief respite in which there is always some great banter from big Gary or Simon with the crowd, even when they make a mistake they don't even miss a note and make a joke of it, and they were on form tonight with their usual rip roaring set Let the Blood Run Free, Werewolf, There Goes the Neighbourhood, Witchhunt and finished on a high with Comrades till the End all at 88 miles an hour!, they had an awful lot of home support as well which helped.

If Legion are tight Brutal Attack are the masters, and the next band meant the night just gradually got better, Ken had obviously spent some time working his set out and slow ballads complimented fast Tales of Glory type songs, As the Drum Beats, Rock Against Communism, Let it Burn, Always Near (ISD) and White Pride White Passion, everyone enjoyed a fantastic set and sang along and the brave danced, everyone of our group reckoned it was the best we had seen them play for a long time, it just really felt as if a lot of thought had gone into the set and stage play, the finale an extended version of Its Alright Now was outta this world and every time we thought it was finished fired back again, a real gem of a set and night to remember, we all look forward to the further gigs in the capital as we take our town back! The Harley Column

"Telling it like it is!"

Further Education: Further Tax Waste!

Following the forever and a day delay in getting the last magazine out to the readers, once again the Harley Column gives you an alternative view of current affairs, often subjects NOT in the news are given airing. This time I must mention my views on STUDENTS! No not those under the legal age to leave school, who spend eleven years being taught some times useless and often given offensive and downright wrong information. How hard it is for parents to tell their children to look listen and learn the modern politically correct curriculum! The massive quantity of school leavers now going to university and taking 'gap years' is a far cry from the 70's when I left school to start real life as a young regular infantryman in Britain's shrinking ~~volunteer~~ volunteer army. The bottom line is for me, do all these extra years of extra education, help the individual find better jobs and get us the taxpayer, value for money? Definitely not! Courses usually have no use what so ever in the world of work, these volunteer students are only there to put off the day when they have to grow up and stand on their own feet. We don't need students, we need tradesmen! Apprenticeships and vocational studies are the answer. Nowadays the socialist workers party, recruits heavily at universities, bone idle layabouts have too much time on their hands, telling us how the ideal world should be, better they be known as socialist shirkers party, that's the reality!

Villain or Vigilante?

Bleak house, Emneth Hungate, a sprawling hamlet near Wisbech in Fenland country. now you know that Tony Martin's about to be written about, the eccentric farmer, alone in his house, too poor that his electric was cut off, the stillness of night is broken when two 'travellers' smash their way into his home. Sick and tired of repeated robberies, previously disarmed and now abandoned by the police, Tony Martin fired his illegally held shotgun into the darkness and killed one and injured another raider. Freed last month from a life sentence for murder, reduced on appeal to 5 years for manslaughter, ironically Brendon Fearon, the injured gypsy was freed 2 days earlier from an unrelated heroin dealing sentence, he now plans to sue for compensation for his injuries! Now be warned!! if you the reader has found a burglar ransacking your house, think not of stopping and apprehending the perpetrator. Call out to them as they ransack your house "excuse me sir, can I make you a nice cup of tea before you take the property that you just looted", don't ever raise your voice to one of these poor under privileged robbers, its not their fault that they need to steal your hard earned chattels, its societies fault, every thing is all because they thought they have a right to take anything from anybody! anytime, no argument! TONY MARTIN, shame on you. You should have killed them both and buried the bodies.

Hungarian - English Unity. / Archivum update.

The Ian Stuart memorial gig in Budapest last year 2002, spawned a series of memorable gigs this year by English (or is it Hunglish?) Rose. Jonesy teamed up with the musicians of (Bonded by Blood) and after sending music for 15 songs, Jonesy (and myself) went back to Hungary in March for the one and only rehearsal they ever had, gigs in Belgium, Italy, Slovenia, Hungary, France and England followed in quick succession. This column has highlighted previously, the problems in the Hungarian scene, the situation changes little. The future of hatecore demi-gods Archivum is now pretty much certain. The bands vocalist has departed the scene, looked up to by many, a real shock that the pressure of state harassment has taken its toll. The other band members though, remain firm friends, both under house arrest. One for allegedly organising a concert. The other under curfew conditions for allegedly translating a script from English to Hungarian for a scene music' zine. Captured when the editor of the magazine implicated him in a written statement. These boys have spent years under court sentence and police surveillance, not for rape, pillage and murder, but for having an opinion on Z.O.G and singing about it!

Czech Fascism 1922-1945

Nothing but Nation!

The first organized groups of Czech fascists became active in the beginning of 1922 based around the regional nationalistic magazine Hanacka republika (Hana is part of the Czech republic). Together with other nationalist organizations the National movement and the Red and White's they wanted to establish a strong state and fight back against the Jewish influence and independence claims of Germans living in the country.

"A Czech-language edition of Adolf Hitler's Mein Kampf published in March 2000, sold 46,000 copies in a month."

In 1923-1924 became a solid coalition of Czech Fascists, National Movement and Red and White's into one movement of Czechoslovakian fascists, renamed in 1926 to the National Fascist Corporation (NOF). Radola Gajda, the most famous Czech Legionnaire during WWI and anti Bolshevik warrior, got took the leadership of NOF in 1927. The Fascist movement then changed into political party with a leader and director at its head.

"The HOST report names Czech skinheads as being responsible for seventeen deaths (one Turk, nine Gypsies anarchists and others)"

There were also other active organizations within the NOF: The Union of Fascist Students, Fascist Youth, Fascist Guards and Union of Fascist Women. In the year 1932 the NOF had already 358 associations with 40,000 members. There wore black uniforms at ceremonial occasions. The NOF reached 6,4 % in elections in 1929, which gave them 6 representatives (Gajda was among them). The NOF tried to gain power by a military putsch in 1933, but the army suppressed the uprising and many fascists were imprisoned.

"Parliament in the Czech Republic is to be asked to draft a law banning the skinhead movement following the killing of a Sudanese man in Prague on Saturday"

In January 1929 there was also formed the Aryan Front, A radical anti-Semite organization with a Hungarian and German division. Another Fascist movement was Vlajka (Flag), which was also an anti-Semite and nationalist organization founded in 1925, which went their own way and wouldn't cooperate with the NOF. It reached its peak during the Protectorate Bohmen und Mohren era (when our country was part of the Third Reich). After joining with Svatopluk's guards and the National Aryan Culture Association a new organization was founded: the Czech National Socialist Camp – Vlajka with Jan Rys had been in its leadership since 1939. Communists executed him in 1946. Vlajka was very active in the fight against Jews and used a very radical kind of fight (bomb attacks on synagogues, Jewish owned factories and the burning of communist newspaper publishers).

"Czech skinheads guilty of murdering gypsy"

The Czech Fascist movement was very strong before WWII, but its peak was definitely during the Protectorate Bohmen und Mohren, when there were 39 Fascist and NS organizations and the amount of active members exceeded 1000 000. The most important have already been mentioned but there were many new ones, such as Czech Union for Cooperation with Germans, Czech Labour Front, Kuratorium für Jugenderziehung (kind of Czech HJ) and the so called Green swastikas whose members were involved in disciplinary armed units and also in the Waffen SS. In March 1945 the Saint Wenceslas was established a volunteer platoon which took part in the fight against Bolshevism.

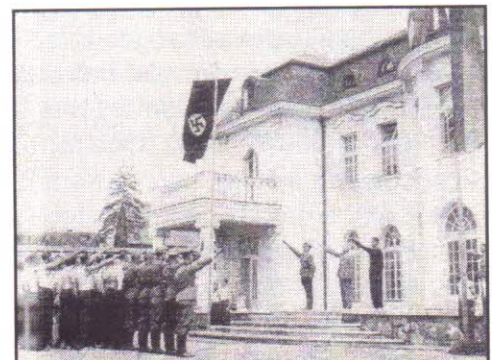

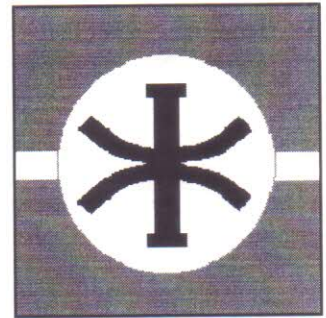

"Czech president's aide attacked by skinheads"

After the war a lot of Czech NS comrades were executed and a lot of them were tortured to death in communists jails (Gajda for example).

But Czech fascism and NS thoughts still live despite communist rule and after its fall it has slowly risen and hopefully it will reach its ancestral form and together with our comrades from around the white world we will achieve what our ancestors couldn't do.

Hail Blood & Honour!

B&H Bohemia.

SKULLCRUSHER

Ivan M. - Guitar
Tadej C. - Bass
Anze B. - Drums
Rok J. - Vocals

1. Could you give our Readers a history of the band?

Well, it all started, when we all met in a bar Sodcek (our former Skinhead" headquarters"). Ivan was a DJ in that bar, always rolling metal. We can't really remember how we all met, but we all dreamed of starting a band. Later on Tadej and Ivan tried to play at parties at Ivans home. And it was pretty good. Later Anze and Tadej started a group called Korpus, which wasn't really productive. After a long period of being inactive, we decided to start a parallel project. We invited Ivan for guitars and Rok for vocals. We set up a session, and it was exactly what we were looking for.

2. Could you give us some insight into the scene in Slovenia?

On 5th November 2001 we passed our probationary period and earned authorisation from B&H to bear the name and open the B&H division in Slovenia. Since then things are developing great, we've had plenty of concerts, political gatherings and other meetings, and things are looking good for now. We don't have too many problems with the law but that could change when Slovenia enters the E.U.

3. Have all your shows gone smoothly, how do, if at all the laws differ in Slovenia?

Have all our shows gone smoothly? Hell no! Technical problems and being nervous were always part of the show, at least at the first few ones. But everything else was OK during most of the shows. No conflicts, fights, security problems, etc. There was only one incident when police forbid a concert when we played with the English Rose, but that was solved with a quick change of location. The laws of Slovenia are partly on our side for now.

4. How is the political scene in your country, what political parties should we watch out for?

Well the majority of Slovenian parties are old Yugoslavian parties turned "democratic" so we should watch out for all of them. But for now they are busy with reforming old laws and money grabbing so they are leaving us intact.

5. Is the band aligned to any political group?

Tadej, Anze and Rok are B&H members and Ivan is a supporter, so we are 100 % aligned with the real B&H movement. In Slovenia there is no other group except some stupid teenagers that call themselves C18 but they are something we call net-nazis. They started C18 because they are hooligans with no brains and they want to oppose us, because they were to incompetent and B&H kicked them out of the organisation. Like around the world most of them are nothing but a joke!

6. From what and whom did you pull your inspiration to form a band?

Our main inspiration to form a band was that we were like a bomb of ideas that's about to explode. We were just full of musical ideas and we just had to express them. Secondly there was no such band in Slovenia, at all. And the third inspiration were our favourite bands, like Slayer, Berserkr, Bound for Glory, Eye of Odin, Vengeance, Squadron etc...

7. You play more metal style of music, how people accept that style?

We actually play, or at least try to play, thrash metal. The reason? It's intense, fast, and it really expresses the lyrics. Some people like it, some don't. It's a matter of taste, if someone doesn't like our music. It's not our problem. For now most people that heard us said that we are good and that's enough for us.

8. What plans do you have for the future? Andy gigs outside of Slovenia?

We are invited to play in Croatia and Hungary. But the date hasn't been set yet. We hope to play in as many countries as possible, specially for official Divisions in the brotherhood. For the future, we plan to make a demo and try to find some people who would help us with our first album.

9. You play also on metal fests, bike fests, gigs with non political bands, how they accepted you?

We all believe what we believe, but we agreed not to mention things like "kill n#####", or stuff like that, directly. Singing some provocative and banned lyrics is really not the way to enlighten the youth; actually we would achieve quite the opposite. This way, having NS lyrics "between the lines", we can perform at other festivals as well and spread our idea amongst other people too.

10. What do you think about today's world politics and tensions between Europe and USA?

Its no wonder that there is tension between Europe and USA, since the USA is forcing their capitalistic way of life on Europe and the rest of the world, they have control of the world media, most of the worlds capital etc... We think this cant last for infinity because people have had enough of their shit and hypocritical "democracy" which is nothing but exploiting people for cheap labour and the worship of money.

11. Any Final Comments?

Thanx to B&H for the interview and B&H Slovenia for their absolute support. Keep on fighting & NEVER GIVE IN !!!
28/14!

Ian Stuart Remembered

The Veteran

I first saw Skrewdriver when I was 16/17 years old at a White Christmas gig at the Borough, a suburb of South London, I had a couple of Skrewdriver singles and had seen Ian Stuart on NF marches and outside the Last Resort but had never managed to make it to a concert, even then he had an "aura" around him and was held in very high esteem by all, even it seemed by our left wing foes.

On that fateful night my life was changed and my views confirmed, I listened and distinctly remember a very dear friend who was also attending his first concert that "this is what I've been looking and waiting for all my life", I knew exactly what he meant and felt, other skinhead concerts were great fun but this was the real deal, we were no longer playing games.

Ian Stuart was imprisoned shortly after that gig, and was absent for a year plus if my memory serves me right, Brutal Attack took the reins and I began drinking at all the skinhead haunts around London and regularly attending concerts. While Ian was in prison "Blood & Honour" was released and it was at a Summer Festival concert Ian Stuart returned and from that time on I was lucky enough to attend many Skrewdriver gigs, march with Ian and fight with him by our side. I was also lucky enough to get to know Ian, not as well as some, better than most as I drank in the same crowd each weekend and attended NF meetings to which we were both affiliated.

I remember like yesterday the day I returned home from work to a house I shared with other skinheads to see a large message written on a board by our phone that said, "bad news Ian had died, we are all down the pub". I immediately rang friends and confirmed the sad message. Even though Ian had left London a few years earlier we had all stayed in contact and some travelled to gigs up North all the time, regretfully I didn't. Down the pub it was packed, girls cried and we all mourned and hoped it was a cruel hoax or misinformation, and maybe it was then that I realised how lucky I was to have known Ian Stuart in some small way and how we never really appreciated what we had until he was cruelly taken from us.

I have stayed in the scene ever since, I left the White Noise club and NF with Ian and was present at the birth of Blood & Honour and I have stayed true, in times of weakness and self doubt it is still the words and memories of Ian Stuart that give me incentive to keep on.

My personal valuation of Ian is one of an unassuming man who had time for all, I watched him spend many evenings in one of the many pubs we frequented talking to people he didn't know, giving his time explaining the same things often in pigeon English to non English speaking comrades from abroad, he was always gracious and could speak to anyone, he was interested in neither fame nor money and always had an ear to offer advice if you asked, he was neither vain nor big headed, and as a testament to that for all their slurs the Reds have never called him a profiteer or "pop star", just a massive thorn in their sides, even in his passing.

I have yet to see any lead singer of any persuasion of music sing with the passion as Ian or be able to whip a crowd into one uniformed army, with one aim and one mission.

In my humble opinion the scene has regained the momentum it lost 4/5 years back, and its good to see all the old faces returning and I am pleased to say being Blood & Honour is something to be proud of once again, I truly believe we are once again on the right track, and generally feel Ian would be proud of what we have achieved in his name and with the movement he created. Long live Ian Stuart! 88

The New Breed

Although a skinhead from the mid 1980s, I never got to see Skrewdriver or meet the man behind the legend. I had travelled from the furthest point of the Western world in the early 1990s, discontent at what the skinhead movement had become at home. To be in England, the flagship of the skinhead and RAC movement, was going to be instrumental in deciding whether my vision of what being a skinhead meant was shared by others or whether I was a lone dreamer. Being in the heart of Ian Stuart's Blood & Honour restored my faith completely. Comradery, loyalty, shared hope reigned. The words of Ian were actually being lived by - for the first time I saw people not only singing about the white hope and white struggle but actually living to its high morals and ideals. I have never looked back nor doubted since.

Unfortunately, the first Skrewdriver concert I was due to attend was the one scheduled the weekend following Ian Stuart's untimely death. The night we learnt of the tragic news, we all met down the pub to share our grief and shock. I'm not ashamed to say I shed tears. I ached for my friends who had lost their mate, feeling their pain. I mourned for Blood & Honour's loss - our figurehead had been cruelly taken from us. And of course the selfish thought that I never got to see Skrewdriver did arise. It was all so surreal.

But true to Ian's words, we will never be beaten. Common grief and outrage unified Blood and Honour throughout Europe and the Western world. It has made us stronger and more determined. His hopes and visions now lie with us and we won't let Ian Stuart - or each other - down. United we stand.

The New Blood

I came into Blood & Honour 18 months ago, after being introduced by a friend. Having listened to Ian Stuart and Skrewdriver I was now fully aware of the strength and unity in the songs he wrote, putting into words the thoughts and feelings that are within us all. The camaraderie I have experienced since my first concert has been second to none, sharing ideas and laughs and of course making some good friends along the way, I am proud to be a part of the vision Ian had when he started Blood & Honour. The passion and commitment that he had for the struggle is an inspiration, never swerving from his path or backing down to oppression, it's this inspiration that has kept the scene alive and kicking 10 years after his tragic death. Having never written anything more than a cheque I hope this goes some way to describe how I feel about Ian Stuart, a truly great man whose legacy lives on.

Hail Ian Stuart! Hail Blood & Honour!

A German Viewpoint

I was 16 when I joined the WP movement in a serious way. On a merchandise list I saw a t-shirt with the words: "Ian Stuart - The Legend". I had never heard about this man or what he had done to become viewed as a legend in our scene, my curiosity was awakened. This was at the beginning of my life in the movement..... but I quickly came to understand the power and glory behind Skrewdriver and especially their "legendary" front man.

The German translation of Joe Pearce's "Skrewdriver - the first ten years" first allowed me an impression of the uncompromising ways of Ian. The pressure he withstood from the music industry, the hate of the reds and the state persecution. His underpaid jobs, the poor conditions he had to endure.....but he never gave up, never surrendered to the fate that they wanted to inflict on Skrewdriver. And then his decision to go the whole way, with no compromises and to not give a fuck to what the music press will write!

When asked what are the most important things in my life; family, friends, my race, my nation, the racial music or my work at the fanzine? I would answer: it's Blood & Honour. For me these two words are not the membership of an organisation, they are a way of life that includes all the points I named one sentence before.

All my beliefs and ideals as a white working class lad, as a skinhead and as a nationalist are manifested in many ways by the struggle of the late great Ian Stuart and the immortal lyrics of glorious Skrewdriver!

An American View

Some Americans like to say that they will always remember exactly where they were and what they were doing the moment they heard that President Kennedy was assassinated, or when they heard that Elvis was dead. I remember exactly where I was and who I was with when I heard my first Skrewdriver song in the summer of 1988.

I didn't know it was Skrewdriver because it was a Memorex tape that a friend had brought over, and it had nothing written on the label except "White Power." I later learned that the band was Skrewdriver and the song was "The Snow Fell" and it was the first time I can remember getting goose bumps from music.

At the time I was 17 and pretty ignorant of political history, but the imagery of that song made me want to learn. I could visualize the Russian people hailing the German troops on their way to battle the communists, and I could feel the loss when Ian sang about those same Russians looking away as their would-be liberators streamed home in frozen defeat, knowing that the enemy would soon follow. Tears came to my eyes when I heard the verse about the red flag going up in Berlin.

Ian Stuart has probably affected my life personally over the years more than any other single person. He sang about honour and sacrifice, treachery and deceit, history, politics, and just having a beer and a laugh with comrades. I know he had this affect on many other young Americans through the years and still does today. Many grown men over here cried and were not ashamed of it when they heard a man they had never personally met had been killed. Ian Stuart is remembered and missed, around the world and in the U.S.

BLOOD & HONOUR DIVISIONAL REPORTS

Dutch B&H Report 2003

The year 2003 was a year for the Dutch Division to arrange a lot of things. The division was growing and almost everybody now knew of the Dutch Division in Europe. So now was the time to arrange several things. Because of the large number of new members our first job was to look what qualities everybody had. So some could become active on the internet. Our website being the result. For comrades wishing to visit: www.bhnederland.com

Also some members became active with merchandising, new support shirts and new member shirts for new members, where really necessary. So everybody was busy with something and after the hard work, you look forward to some more light hearted things. Last year the Barbeque was a great success, so we decided to organize BBQ 2003. Because of our many contacts in Germany we decided to organize a Dutch/German friendship evening. We arranged a large army tent a great location, enough beer for an army and food and all kind of other things. 75 comrades from Germany and the Netherlands were invited and now we prayed to the gods that the weather would join us with sunshine. On the 12th of July, 75 comrades met each other at the designated meeting points. When everybody was there, we drove to the BBQ location. After a few hours with music, drinking, and eating our friends in blue arrived. No problem because we had arranged the event at an open location... WRONG!! The mayor of the small village had decided to end the BBQ and arranged a special authorization law that the location was a forbidden area that evening. Its not very easy to arrange a new place for 75 NS skinheads.

In the Netherlands there is an old army base so we decided to go there, after a while the police attacked us, a lot of police, dogs, hooligan police, everybody was there, maybe they were only hungry and wanted to eat something with us, but NO we had to leave the place. But a new problem arose, 20 cars and only 2 skins who hadnt drunk. So our friends in blue promised us that the drunken drivers could drive to a big parking place near the highway under police escort without any risk that they would be arrested for drink and driving! Really a strange situation, but now new proof that our jewish government really doesnt give a shit for the safety of its people. We had no choice and had to drive to the parking place. Under police escort we arrived at the parking lot and wether they knew it or not it was a gay parking hang out. Some faggots had to run for their lives and some cars were damaged because as they sought protection in each other cars. A lot of music, beer, drunken skinheads made this evening a success and one we will never forget. After burning the flag of Zion we slept in our cars.

A lot of people asked us if it was possible to join us. So once again police pressure backfired and only bolstered our ranks!

So a great evening but not without a lot of problems. Because B&H is forbidden in Germany a lot of comrades from Germany wanted to join our division, so our next step is to look at the possibility of working with our brothers there. The Dutch division is growing in the Netherlands and also we are growing in the Blood and Honour Brotherhood. With some very good contacts with the other divisions we are really on the right track together. Because united we stand!

Greetings to all the comrades all over the World and hope to see you soon.

HAILBLOOD AND HONOUR

BLOOD AND HONOUR SUOMI FINLAND

The new Finnish B&H division has started it's long and hard journey like a storm approaching. Just a short while after we became an official division of the Brotherhood, we organized the biggest and most successful gig in years to take place on Finnish soil. Firstly on the 21st March we had a great ballad evening in Tampere, central Finland. It was held at the Tampere skins' local clubhouse, who are also members of the B&H Finland division. There were 100+ skins enjoying the evening with lots of sing alongs and good music.

First on the stage was Muke (the singer and guitar player of Mistreat) and Pete (Mistreat's bass player). They played their popular songs that have become the skinhead anthems among the Finland skinheads. After finishing their set, they stayed on the stage being the musicians for the other artists. Next one up was Billy from Celtic Warrior. He sang songs from Celtic Warrior (of course), Skrewdriver, Brutal attack and for the FIRST TIME EVER LIVE, some Broadsword songs. After a while the Swedish beauty Saga joined him and they sang some Skrewdriver songs together. That night really put the people in the mood for the next day's big event, the main gig in Helsinki. The venue was a pub near Helsinki city centre and it soon became packed with skins travelling from all over Finland and also from England, Sweden and Estonia. The first band playing was Mistreat. Next one up on the stage was Celtic warrior. They really got the crowd crazy with their own anthems like "Let the battle begin" as well as some cover songs from Skrewdriver, Brutal Attack. But the whole evening went perfectly to order, thanks to the B&H Finland's security that was doing a great job. The guys are larger than life by the way. The last one who climbed up on the stage was Saga who played without her own band, the guys from Celtic warrior being her band this time.

B&H Finland could have not hoped for any better start for themselves as a new division. The only problem in the whole night was a little bit before the concert started. There were problems in getting everyone in, 'cause the place was a little bit too small and also more people came than expected. But in the end it was totally OK and everyone squeezed. Next time we just have to get a bigger venue!

On May 23rd Finnish B&H organized another successful gig. At first it was supposed to take a place in Helsinki, but because the venue's owner had misunderstood the date we were coming we lost the place just a short while before the gig. We were without a gig venue just a few days before! Then thankfully the B&H chapter from Orivesi stepped forward like a rescuing angel and told us that they had managed to get a place for us. This meant that we had to change the venue 150 miles northwest from the original in four days. That's right, we managed to get the gig venue just four days before the show.

The place was just perfect for us. A nice pub that was just the right size. Not too big, or not too small. First on a stage was Swedish STEELCAPPED STRENGTH. After that west London's pride LEGION OF ST.GEORGE who played one hell of the show. Both bands played such a good set that they probably won many new fans to their side. After that played the Swedish beauty SAGA, who's Skrewdriver always get people going, a great night and another success despite a last minute difficulty 6th of July B&H Suomi Finland's Kymenlaakso chapter organized a gig at the town of Kotka, which is a coastal town about 100 miles east of Helsinki. The venue was once again very good for our purposes, except it was like being in the rainforest. That was due to the weather, which was extremely hot and humid and the pub was located in the basement of a building, which made it even worse. Finland's pride Mistreat started the set with very strong performance as we've become used to seeing from this band. After them played quite new band from Britain, Section 88. They played a good and tight set which was a very good promotion for their coming debut CD. But of course they didn't get the audience going crazy, 'cause they'd never heard the songs before, except the Combat 84 and Skrewdriver cover songs. The last band upon the stage was the Estonian PWA. They have started to be a very familiar band at Finnish gigs and also start to get a lot of new fans with their powerful melodic Oi music. Another successful and good event in our book. And we'll get back for more!!

B&H SUOMI FINLAND SECURITY member LEDE, was in France in spring. He participated to the power lifting European Championship competition. He won the European Championship title for himself with a new European record! The European record 960 kg/2115 lbs consist of the following results: Bench press 250 kg/550 lbs, Squat 385 kg/850 lbs and Dead lift 325 kg/715 lbs. He lifted in a series +140kg/+308lbs juniors and now he holds one Finnish Championship, two European Championships and one World Championship.

B&H SF has also opened its own website. It's all in the Finnish language, but everyone who's interested can check it out at the address: <http://members.odinsrage.com/bhsuomi>

"We salute you!"

Blood & Honour Hellas

NATIONALISTS MARCHING ON THE STREETS OF ATHENS 1/2/03 Seven years have passed since the sad night of the 31st of January 1996 when three officers of our Naval Forces were murdered, betrayed by our American slave government, dying in battle with extreme heroism from the bullets of our long time enemies, the Turks.

Golden Dawn with the Board of National Remembrance has marched annually on the streets of Athens in remembrance for those officers. Blood and Honour Hellas, supported this event and this year with our comrades from Golden Dawn made it the most successful demonstration ever. In the morning there were some people from G.D. youth and B&H members, securing the area in case any reds wanted to stop the nationalists from honouring the fallen officers. All day, there was incessant rain. But the bad weather could not stop the Remembrance Day and a few hundred of our people joined together for the demonstration.

2 English, 1 Spaniard and 2 German comrade, joined us in our march, honouring us, and we send them our eternal gratitude. At seven o'clock, everyone was present. Then some speeches followed about the political situation in Hellas and all over the world. The demonstration had a powerful spirit on the streets of Athens. In front of the monument of the Unknown Fallen Soldier, the leader of the Golden Dawn burned a Turkish Flag. Then all of us sang our National Anthem, and continued marching on the streets with our battle cry. The demonstration ended at the offices of the Golden Dawn where all of us promised to meet again next year for this modest and truly patriotic demonstration. Hail Victory! - ANTONIS/B&H HELLAS

B&H HELLAS GIG ON TRIKALA 8/8/03 Hellenic B&H division made the first ever gig here with a foreign band and this was not to easy, but many comrades work hard for this live show to become reality. This gig was open air on a camping site in Trikala (a big city of Hellas) and all was great, the space, the stage, the sound and off course the people who joined us at the gig.

The first group who open the show was NO SURRENDER, our own B&H band with a great classic Oi! sound. They played a set with 7 original songs and 3 covers: 'Sturmfeuer' from German band Landser with Hellenic lyrics, 'Joe public' from Ovalteenes and 'This time the world' from No Remorse! Later Boiling Blood from Thessalonica (the second big city here) took to the stage with 10 songs in a harder style, but with only 5 original songs because the only original member was the singer and the others were session musicians. They played covers from Iron Youth, Skrewdriver, Strikeforce and the front man even sang one song from Johnny Rebel! Then the guest group from Holland Brigade M started with a great set with songs like 'Eigen volk erst' and covers like 'A.C.A.B' (4-Skins), 'Freiheit' (Landser) and 'Seek & destroy' (Metallica) with anti-chosen one lyrics! Comrades were dancing like crazy, pogo and our rebel flags were held high! One of the best European bands, they're debut-cd is out now! It was a great night and the meeting with comrades from other countries; I believe is the best thing! Thanks and salutes to Brigade M and all the best! HAIL BLOOD & HONOUR! - HAILIAN STUART! - ALBERT/B&H HELLAS-

Hail Blood And Honour and all the Brotherhood worldwide!

B&H division New Zealand

We are a new B&H division in New Zealand and are proud to be fighting under the name of Blood and Honour. After visiting loyal comrades in Auckland, our countries largest city we were given permission to start things up here in Hawkes Bay. We have only been active under the B&H for a few months now so we are still sorting things out and planning for the near future. In this short time we have gained a lot of support, especially from some females who are very interested in becoming part of it. There are people locally and nationally who want to become part of B&H so this is good to see. Most of us are skinheads but there is a lot of interest among non skinheads in joining our ranks, this is something New Zealand does not have a lot of and we are hoping to lead the way in building a stronger united movement no matter how someone dresses or what hair style they have. Unfortunately there are a lot of skinheads in our country who abuse drugs and have a basic gang mentality so we do not hand out B&H shirts to just anyone who asks. There are still no bands in New Zealand but we are looking at organizing a concert in the near future. Well that's all for now, a big HAIL to all comrades around the world, keep up the fight, if anyone wants to contact us please e mail to bloodhonour_newzealand@hotmail.com or write to; Blood And Honour Hawkes Bay P.O BOX 8759. we also have B&H shirts for sale, they are $20 NZ 14/88

Blood & Honour Slovenian Division

That, which doesn't kill us, just makes us stronger...

Not even two years have passed since we first organized under the Blood & Honour banner, and the media have attacked us relentlessly labelling us as the worst threat, from within the NS politic scene. As time has progressed and we have become more organised and disciplined they have found they cannot pin mindless racial attacks on different ethnic groups upon us, so they have resorted to down right fabrications and lies, all with one aim, to put Blood & Honour in a bad light. They wanted to make a major scandal because a group of B&H members supported and helped the S.D.S. (National Working Party). With a little help from friends at Anti Fascist Action, all their names were collected and all the information on them sent to the media and different forums on the Internet. The media did all they could to slander our members and groups name, but most of all they were frightened at how well established and active are Division is, within the bigger established Slovenian far right parties. Just after the presidential elections in Slovenia, votes won by ex commies (which is most of them who sit in the parliamentary chairs), and some anti government "Peace" organizations declared they would shut down and fight back against the right wing movement. Which raised again the prospect that all our racial laws will change overnight with our acceptance into the corrupt E.U. The police made it known that they felt they would soon be able to do anything to us at our last gig when English Rose came to play on their tour over Europe! But we have known all the time that this will happen one day, so we are preparing for every eventuality. We keep working and building the scene, our latest official magazine is of excellent quality, we have also published "Skrewdriver, The First Ten Years" in Slovenian. The section in Ljubljana and Kranj have done a very good job and managed to get our first official Blood & Honour clubhouse, so we can gather and organize meetings without any problems. Also we plan to make three smaller gigs/meetings in August! The first one will be on the second of August with Brigade-M who have also toured around Eastern Europe, then just two weeks later our friends from Hungary (Bonded by Blood) will come again and will play with our band Skullcrusher and another local band. This will be a memorial gig for Andrew "Stinko" Lewis who sadly was taken from us on the 18th of August due to an illness, which couldn't be cured.

Another gig is then planned (Italian-Slovenian friendship) with our and bands Veneto Fronte Skinheads bands. We will also proudly unveil another Section of Blood & Honour in the Primorska area, they have done everything we have expected from them and are very dedicated and will be a very good unit in the fight for and promotion of National Socialism in their area! Of course at the end of September we plan to organize our biggest concert for the Ian Stuart memorial, this year will be 10 years from when he was taken from us but we keep hi's name and deeds in our hearts & eternal memory!!!

Blood & Honour Portugal

10th June our national day, the day of our identity. B&H Portugal organised an event in the north of the country to celebrate our history and racial identity. 25 comrades met at the designated point to take part in our celebration.

In the morning we visited the castle of Guimaraes and then marched to the statue of the founder of Portugal, Mr. Afonso Henriques, which is situated outside of the castle walls. We laid a ceremonial garland to commemorate all the people who have died for our glorious nation. We celebrated afterwards with a large banquet of excellent lamb and wine. After that a political seminar was held, with each comrade discussing a specific subject. The activity was a complete success, without any problems and good camaraderie was made even stronger amongst our growing ranks.

Blood & Honour Portugal has been officially created. After a few months of strong will and connections with other divisions, and due an excellent interaction and friendship with B&H Spain and B&H East London, we decided to start in our country a Blood & Honour Division. We believe in the projects and future of B&H and we want to be a part of them. For this we will work, to make the ties between the the worldwide B&H divisions even stronger. Our political and social battle started many years ago, but now we will have the Blood & Honour name behind us. We will respect it and we'll work to give more strength to the B&H label. We will not tolerate the envy and the lies that contaminates our movement. To that we say NO! We will seek and fight the real enemies, not our loyal comrades. And who is the real enemy? You know who they are... For that we will stand, to make a STRONGER and UNITED BLOOD & HONOUR. 88 contact email - bhportugal88@hotmail.com

Veneto Front Skinheads

From the begining of the year, the VFS has been involved in a propaganda war, we have been trying to spread information against the current mass immigration and political acts against our people. From September we will begin a countrywide campaign against the "Mancino Law", which attacks all comrades who oppose racial integration, sadly this law has been responsible for many of our comrades being imprisoned.

25th April: many comrades commemorated the Italians murdered by Tito and his communist terrorists, many months after the wars end in Basovizza. The cermonial celebration is a sombre affair, equal with the commemorations held on the shores of Piave (a sacred river in our homeland) near Treviso, here the VFS pays tribute to the heroic dead from the first brothers war.

22nd June: a big concert was held in Italy to celebrate the tenth anniversary of Tuono Records. The concert was held in a beautiful town under the hills near Vicenza, the organisation was fantastic with everything catered for. 700 comrades attended the bash and Boiling Blood, Sumbu Brother, Armco, the first concert for new Adl 122, Gesta Bellica, Ultima Frontiera, Dario Bressan and Injustice Side all made it a night to remember.

26th July: VFS held another concert, before the gig a football match was held between Vicenza and Verona, then we were treated to Ultima Frontiera, Malnat and Mannaz.

Musically Provos 18 have released a great cd, good Oi! with metal overtones and some indications of ska. Also there is the new CD of the "ironic" Sumbu Brothers, and there is also releases from new bands Malnat and Porco 69. As we said ADL 122 have reformed, the lead singer and drummer have brought in two new members, they decided they wanted to play songs live many in Italy had only ever heard on CD and to show they still haven't surrendered. Ultima Frontiera are recording their next CD in September, while Armco have been playing new material and old Peggior Amico classics.

For the Blood & Honour!

Blood & Honour Spain

May 1st Estandarte 88, Endovelico.

We organised a concert to celebrate May Day, workers day. Comrades from all over Spain and Portugal traveled to attend this function. Estandarte 88 from Catuluna and Endovelico were to honour us by playing. First up was E88 every time they play they amaze us with their continued learning curve and new songs, which just get better and better, and their new version of Lilly Marlene was fantastic. Next it was the turn of B&H Portuguese band Endovelico. A band we are very lucky to see often. They played a pure hate core sound with lyrics about the skinhead NS scene, style a little like Blue Eyed Devils. The atmosphere was good, the bands were good bonds were made stronger, a great night!

Spanish Rudolf Hess Memorial

The 16th anniversary of Rudolf Hess, saw the Blood & Honour Spanish and Portuguese Divisions organize a memorial weekend on the 15th to the 17th of August, a campaign to honour his memory, the prisoner of peace assassinated by the zog on the 17th of August 1987.

We all know all the suffering that this great comrade endured in the name of National-Socialism. The life of honour this great white man led has been an example to follow by a so many all over Europe, that we celebrate and honour his memory.

The campaign organized by Blood & Honour Spain was held in a little town in the Sierra of Gredos, Avila province, and started on Friday 15th with the arrival of comrades from different parts of Spain and Portugal, about 60 in total.

We started with a brotherhood meal finishing with a swim in the clear waters of the surrounding mountain lake, during the afternoon we played some sport competitions. During the night we enjoyed a large dinner, and then the more adventurous of us played a game of nocturnal paint ball, consisting of an abandoned house that one side had to conquer and one had to defend, later the comrades relaxed and had a few beers chatting till late. On Saturday we continued playing paint ball in which some members demonstrated their combative spirit later we had a political seminar with comrades of the M.S.R. and those responsible for Nueva Republica magazine, one of the comrades has just been raided loosing 1000 copies and facing up to five years in prison!

That night we had a small party celebration, in which some comrades of B&H delighted us with their voices, specially the partnership of Xavi-Tomás! a great feast where we tightened the bonds of friendship.

On the Sunday, the most important moment came, we went to a town called Cuacos de Yuste the last abode of Carlos V, where there is situated a small cemetery of fallen German soldiers from the 1st and 2nd brothers war, a place chosen by B&H because we think that it represents an the example of sacrifice made by the European youth who fought for the freedom of our race.

About midday and with a Spanish sun blazing, we marched in formation from the town to the cemetery sensing songs and carried our flags. When we arrived at the cemetery many tourists were quite surprised to see us as we were shouting Europe, Nation, Revolution, and then in the cemetery the leader of B&H Spain gave a speech in honour of Rudolf Hess and we held a minutes silence in his honour, and then after laying a laurel crown on the grave of the unknown German soldier in remembrance all who fell for the freedom of Europe. The silence was only broken by the shout of Rudolf Hess! Present!!!

We wanted to conclude this article asking for one thing from you our comrades, the young and old, every time you feel our battle is impossible, I just ask you to think of Rudolf Hess, he gave his life for our freedom, a person who couldn't see his family for decades, that suffered a thousand humiliations to which he could have put remedy by just retracting himself, but for him and for us it is more important to live a day with honour than a thousand lives of lies.

Death to the traitors!

Rudolf Hess present!

B&H Spain has continued fighting for the freedom of Europe, with all our comrades from the brotherhood.

This year we have undertaken two large operations with our comrades of B&H Portugal, to support our French and British comrades in the brotherhood. In December, more than 30 of our comrades were present at the White Christmas gig in England, we would especially like to thank Rob and all those of East London B&H, for organising our entire trip with sleeping and travel arrangements.

In June, once again 30 comrades travelled to France to celebrate the summer solstice, among our ranks was the band Estandarte 88 and Endovelico, we would like to thank all the French and German B&H who helped us. This year has been an active one with two major successful concerts. We had the honour of great bands like Celtic Warrior and Brigada NS play for us. We have reaffirmed our presence on the streets (Madrid, Zaragoza) campaigned in the mountains of our Fatherland and we are political soldiers of B&H. B&HE works politically day by day, with the MSR political party and supports the Cultural Association Tierra Y Pueblo (soil and people). All true B&H comrades that would like to visit our nation are welcome, our main actions in the year are January 30th, Party Day (N.S.D.A.P) and the annual celebration of the formation and acceptance to Blood & Honour.

In November, we will be holding our memorial to the fallen with Saga. It will be a two tiered event in remembrance to the fallen of BHE and to those who fell in the fight for Europe.

Hail Victory! For a strong Europe, B&H ALWAYS Anti Marxist and anti Zionist!

Greetings from Blood & Honour Canada, Ontario, Div.

As fast as I can type, we have Homosexuals flooding into Ontario, daily! The Supreme Court of Ontario has ruled that the marriage of same sex couples can no longer be discriminated against in our society, therefore they have allowed them to set the sickest of precedence's, to be wed! With this, Parliament has placed them under our new and improved 'HATE LAWS'. How can the Churches or any groups for that matter speak aloud on the matter when they are breaking the law?... They CAN'T!

This has the Churches outraged, as well as the general public. They have decided the fate of our Nation, without the slightest of care about family values, nor right's and or wrong's of nature! There was no public vote on this; they felt it wasn't important enough. This open society has turned into a very strange melting pot indeed. With the outbreak of S.A.R.S. to T.B. to frigg'n every other air born virus that these refugee's bring in on their backs, we are starting to finally say 'we've had enough'. Our country needs to voice it's self, a hell of a lot louder than it has been.

With the wake of all the smut they're trying to shove down our throats, the system is dealing with yes, another serious atrocity. In downtown Toronto there was a 10-year-old girl going from one house to the next for dinner, when she disappeared. Within 2 hours she had been murdered and cut up into enough pieces to fit in a couple of small carry-on bags, taken by public transport and dumped in lake Ontario. This hit the public very hard, and with this the police had to release information that in a 2 block radius, they had over 200 known sex offenders on file! (Hang em, hang em, hang em high!)

Now that's just in that particular area, with everything being brought out into the open, we find out that the National sex Offender Registry is not Nation Wide. (We need a stronger government!) This means that one of those sick bastards can rape a child in Quebec get the so called rehab that they offer, and off he goes to any other province he likes, to re-offend, and no one is the wiser. (Bring back capital punishment) What are our politicians doing about this? Why, changing the subject of course!

But never mind that folks! The city of Toronto is hosting a S.A.R.S. BENEFIT concert with the Rolling Stones & guests in the hope that they can bring tourism back up to where it was before. Before what? The Mayor of Toronto His Honorable Mel Lastman, appearing in yet another Gay Pride Parade (With Squirt Gun in hand) that Toronto is now very famous for, I was worried that Toronto might not be able to host the Carrabanna Festival this year, but with the help of Mick & Co. raising money for what? S.A.R.S.? Little Holly Jones? That sick bastard's rehab? Multicultural Smoke screen! What a mess!

On the front, Oshawa held a successful gig, with Celtic Warrior, Stonehammer, Max Resist, & Kremator. Very good show! Billy and the lads from M.R. sure did a great job; I for one was very excited to see him play in Vinland. Sean & Max Resist, as always sounded great and filled the air with their traditional WP style. Stonehammer is a 3-piece band with myself on Bass 'again' ha, ha. We played our normal set as well as our old Aryan set, we are getting ready to play a 10 year anniversary gig in Ottawa, it's been 10 years since the riots there, I remember it like yesterday, boy did we have fun! Kremator brought to the table there unique sound and presence; I enjoy the energy level they're able to bring in to play. Look out for these gents. While Billy was here, we took the opportunity to see some sites and do some recording; he and I recorded a couple of ballads, Ravens over Midgard, & The Fall. We hope to do some more recording in the later part of the year, whilst on his soil this time. I look forward to it. I enjoyed his visit greatly as did everyone here in Canada.

The Honour was all ours!

We wish you all the best during the month of Sept, with the Memorial gigs going on all over the White World; our hearts are with you all!

Hail Ian Stuart! Hail Blood & Honour!

14/88 Griffin.

Blood & Honour Slovenia presents:

So, just two weeks after our successful gig with Brigade M, Blood & Honour Slovenia (Kamnik) section organized another gig, this time Bonded By Blood from Hungary were to play for us! The gig venue was near of to our clubhouse and just big enough for all the people who arrived! After some problems with instruments and equipment, Skullcrusher took the stage and started with the first song! They performed their regular set of their own songs like System of Pigs, Blitzkrieg, Dark times...and one cover of Midtown Bootboys. They were very good for being a very young and new band in the Blood & Honour NS scene, but they are definitely getting better and better!

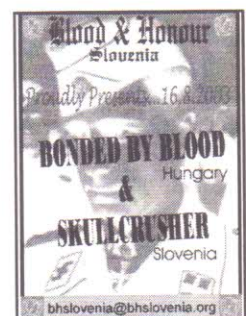

After them, Bonded by Blood took the stage and after the first song, the crowd went mental and the dance floor turned into a battlefield (specially Hungarian skinheads), I didn't understand the songs at first as they were in their own language, but their second set of songs, were in English language! They ended the gig with the famous Landser cover (A. K), Condemned 84- Skinhead and Skrewdrivers famous Blood & Honour!

Well, summing up I can say that even after lots of technical problems, we all enjoyed the night and it was great to see so many of our comrades from other European countries!

Even the Police, were very quiet and unseen and the main police Academy is only 200 m away!!! Thanks to all who were there and see ya soon again!

The unity now being seen amongst European comrades at B&H concerts is awesome, for the first time in history the Brotherhood is uniting and building in a way never actually seen before, the words have been there but now we have the deeds!

B&H Slovenia

The birth of the Blood & Honour Vlaanderen

After spending years as loyal members of Blood & Honour Midgard, the Flemish section became divisional size and was too big to stay a part of B&H Midgard. After several meetings with leading people from B&H Great Britain, B&H Netherlands, B&H Germany... Blood & Honour Flanders was born.

There is only one division in our country; other people who claim our name are imposters. This is now the official Blood & Honour Vlaanderen (Flanders – Belgium) division. We have proven that after our highly successful gigs and political street activities, we are worthy of this name.

We would like to state that we still support Blood & Honour Midgard 200 percent! But we have chosen to go our own way as an independent division because we have other specific objectives, as well as the cultural difference.

So we leave Blood & Honour Midgard in the capable hands of our brothers and sisters in France. We wish them all the best in their division and we will still be there for them in every way. We hope they feel the same about us.

We would like to thank all Blood & Honour divisions worldwide who have helped us with forming this division or supported us. Our contacts add bhvlaanderen@hotmail.com and our website address is: www.bhvlaanderen.net.tc

Skinheads in Austria

It's not really easy to be a nationalist skinhead in Austria. We have a lot of problems because of the government. The anti-NS-laws are very harsh. Many symbols are illegal, for examples: Celtic Cross, Swastika, Totenkopf etc, flags and uniforms from the 3rd Reich. It's also forbidden to own and listen to cds of nationalist bands. Austria is a small country, but the scene is quite large. There are a many groups but they're not very united. The scene in Vorarlberg is the best-organized skinhead movement in Austria. They are about 70-80 people (just a few of them are B & H) and they organize the most gigs. They had a few small gigs in 2002 and one big one. There were about 1300 people and it was a really great gig. Bands, which played, were Max Resist, Final War, Intimidation One, Brutal Attack and many more. They have two bands there but they don't play very often. The bands are called Tollschock and Stoneheads. One gig was held this year in Austria in July, organized by people from Obersterreich. There were about 400 people and it wasn't bad. There played Sleipnir and Blutstahl. Two gigs more are planed this year. At every gig there is always a lot of policemen. They are always looking for weapons and other illegal things (thats what they say). Sometimes they listen to the bands and if they sing forbidden songs, they try to finish the concert immediately and the organizers are fined.

Many skinheads here are younger than in other countries. Most are between 18 and 20 years old. Many people wear their boots for just a few years and when they are about 20 years old, they think they have to "grown up" and they become so called respectable citizens. Consequently you can't really trust young bootboys. The most popular music here is RAC, but a lot of people like hatecore (like blue eyed devils) too. Some are listening to NS-black metal and they are visiting such gigs. We have no problems with these believers in the anti-christ, because a lot of them are fighting with us for our Aryan race! only a few of us listen to OI-music, because we have fights with OI-wankers. they think, they are the real kind of skinheads but they are just dress ups and niggerlovers!

In the bigger cities we have SHARP-skins too, but they are not really brave, and in every part of our country we have trouble with the reds, they are often very organized and they attack us sometimes, but they are only brave, when they have numerical superiority (when they are 10 to our 1). Punks are the same as in Germany, they are just red bastards, and they are just anarchists and communists. There is no political party to support, because if a party speaks the truth about imigrants and other things that we believe in here it will immediately be forbidden. So we do not have a legal party to vote for. So-called democracy, he, he!!! We did have one good group (party), they were called "VAPO (volkstreu e auflerparlamentarische opposition)" but they were outlawed, and the most important people within this organization were jailed. The leader, GOTTFRIED KESSEL was imprisoned for 7 years. We also had the FP, they were a good legal party and it was good to vote for them. This was in the times of JORG HAIDER (i think, every nationalist knows him!!!) but since he stepped down from politics, this party has gone shit. They don't act in the interests of white people any more, they just say: "WELCOME IMIGRANTS! WE ARE THE MURDERerS (3rd reich)!" Now we cannot bring ourselves to vote for this party because they are just the slave boys of the biggest party in Austria, the VP, and they are nothing but traitors! We had another national party, it was called PNO (partei neue ordnung, in english: New Order Party), They did some good work, but it was too small a party and it has been forbidden for 2 years now. The most of the western, northern and southern Austrian skinheads have very good ties to Germany. Most gigs are held there and the real Austrian skinheads know a lot of people there, most in Bavaria. For most its a long journey to get to gigs or to meet comrades, but the friendship is keeping us alive because we are bloodbrothers! There are some brotherhoods or friendships between Austrian and German groups, and that's great because we are the same race (we have one, it's called: Austrian-German brotherhood)! Most people in eastern Austria are in good contact to Hungarian nationalists.

Lastly, but not least: the Austrian scene isn't the best worldwide, a lot of bastards and traitors are so called skinheads, but the true of us will fight till the end for a white Austria, and for a white Europe. Some are hammerskins, some are blood and honour, but we are fighting for the same thing, for our Europe and for our children!!!!

Think about it and be united!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

This is my small voice from Austria, 88 Hari

Platoon 14

1) Could you give our European Readers a history of the band?

We started in 1999 with just myself (Dennis), and James, our singer. We used a friend to record studio drums for our 1st release, "Ape Slayers & Kike Killers EP" 7". The drummer left immediately after recording. We now have a full and steady line up with Bobby on bass and Chris on drums. Our 1st full length CD had just been released on Imperium Records. www.thulepublications.com/imperium

2) Could you give us some insight into the scene in America, especially Florida?

The US scene is defiantly thriving, there's a show almost every month now. The Florida scene is probably the best it's ever been right now, as far as WP bands go. I believe there are 6 active bands in the state right now. We play small shows to crowds of 60 to 70 skins every few months. Florida is really tight knit these days. It makes me proud.

3) What are your views on American world policy in the Middle East, Kosovo and Ulster?

We are absolutely aware of what our racially treasonous government is doing. We are 100% against it. We live by racial law, and unfortunately, so do the JEWS in our Zionist government. They use the USA to police the world and pressure other nations into racial genocide. We sympathize with Kosovo, Ulster, and even the Arabs and Muslims in the Middle East. If their aim is to wipe out Jews, we commend them.

5) Could you please describe your new release "We've come for War", what plans have you have for the future?

It's a simple release. We play skinhead music, aggressive, real, and to the point. Our influences are Oi! Punk and RAC bands. We are from the old school, and I think it shows in our music. As for plans, we're already ready to record a new full length CD with 10 to 12 songs. We also working on a compilation titled, "Full of Hate In The Sunshine State" (that's Florida). Of course it'll have all the Florida White Power bands on it, including my new punk band, The Anti- Semites, who will be recording for Panzerfaust Records. Also, P14 will be featured on the Aryan Rebels POW comp on Imperium Records. We hope to play some shows in Europe within the next year as well.

6) Your Views on the continuing working relationship between B&H and Hammerskins in Europe?

I think it's excellent. It can only be a good thing. I've supported B&H since I was a kid and 2 of the members of P14 are prospects of the Hammerskin Nation. We have friends in both organizations in Europe, and everything sounds to be going very well. We look forward to playing there for everyone.

7) Any upcoming bands in the States you rate, and our readers should watch out for?

The Anti- Semites (nazi punk/Oi!), Slay The Beast (C.I. band with founding member of Break The Sword), Forward Area (up and coming WP punk band) to name a couple.

8) Could you give us your views on the late DR William Pierce and his organisation, especially the anti-skinhead diatribe recently attributed to them?

I think Dr. Pierce was a great man, and an inspiration to us all. We all could have learned from him and still can. I don't believe he was "anti-skinhead". He always said he wasn't into our subculture, but has said that we were the real warriors that would reach the youth. As for his organization, it seems to be very split and loose, but I wish them all the best and I give any deserving Racist organization my best wishes and support.

9) What is the meaning of the legend Platoon 14?"

A militant unit, fighting or playing music to preserve the 14 words.

10) Most European countries now have a Nationalist party in Government, on the fringes or pushing for political power and voice for our people, is there such a party emerging in the U.S.A, or can you see one emerging?

NO, not since David Duke ran for office that I can think of. Our country is made up of brainwashed sheep. The chosen ones have everyone under such a trance, that its unbelievable. Something has got to change soon though. Everyone is watching all the other nations drop out of NATO's decision to attack Iraq on the news; people have to begin to wonder why. Hopefully the chosen ones are losing their grip on our people, and a leader will stand up and take the reins.

11) Most bands in the States lean towards heavy metal or at least a heavier sound is this true in your area?

That's true, but we're not into metal or even hatecore. We like that old time Oi! sound. The bands I write for play that style, however, I do fill-in on guitar for Attack, a definite metal/hatecore sound. I don't write that stuff though. It's fun to play, but its just not my taste or style.

12) What is your take on using music as a white weapon?

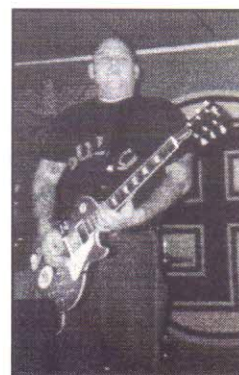

How can I not be for it, it works. Almost every skinhead I know became racially aware from listening to Skrewdriver and other racial music. Music is one of the biggest tools out there to attract the attention of our youth; MTV knows that, so should we.

13) What is Platoon 14's fondest memory from life on the skinhead rock circuit so far?

We've only played a few shows, but one of my greatest memories would have to be from our 1st show. First off, we got to fly to New York free, to play with Blue Eyed Devils, No Alibi, and Attack. We were to go on 1st of course and I was terrified that everyone would just stand there staring at us. From the first note, everyone went fuckin crazy and no one knew our songs. After the first song, everyone was screaming and applauding for more. That was fuckin cool.

14) Your say?

"My Blood is My Honour, My Race is my Pride", Hail B&H, and thanks 6 million for the interview. We hope to be in England soon. Our CD can be bought at www.thulepublications.com and our website is www.platoon14.com

Blood & Honour Scene News

Landser: August 03, so the political show trial begins. Good luck to our comrades and all those alleged members of Germany's finest sons

Avalon: Since relocating to the South East Avalon has so far managed to play the one concert, which was in Prague. No other plans have been made to play live in the immediate future. We are very busy recording and at present are working on two projects. Firstly, a full length CD which will be released through the "Thule" label in the States entitled 'HATE THROUGH THE CHOSEN EYES'. Secondly, we are working on 6 six songs for a split CD with Czech band 'Beowulf' which should be released very soon. We are also hoping to work on the production side of recordings with other bands. Avalon have also been fortunate enough to meet many new friends who never knew of a White Resistance. Through a slow introduction with music, literature & resources from the Internet a large group of White YOUTH have become very aware that things are going on throughout this land, Europe and indeed the world. One thing that will never cease to amaze me is the way that folk are enraptured by the words of Ian Stuart on a first listen. It took some time to sink in when I informed them that Ian was indeed murdered by their very own government. That concludes this brief news section and as always, one way or another, THE FIGHT GOES ON.

Panzerfaust: New Releases: Rebel hell (motorhead style Detroit rock band), Final War split with Austrian band Stonehead, Warfare 88 (Nazi Punk featuring members of Final War), the second Release from Deaths Head.

Bands going into the studio this year†Hatemachine, American Standard, Aggressive Force, Final War and Georgia's finest Hammerhead.

Operation Break the Chains legal fund has hired an Attorney for Bruce Pierce and the case could secure the early release of some Order members. Panzerfaust is offering a free 105-minute Compilation cassette tape to all prisoners that request it. Volume One is in production.

Pureblood: after what many describe as the release of the year, Pureblood continue to practice and break in their new drummer, promising to unleash themselves outside of their West London heartland shortly.

Having played over sea's on so many occasions, we are of course are looking forward to seeing all our friends again. It will be very great! Resistance Records is getting ready to release Stonehammer's First Live cd. Recorded on Finland's Independence Day in 1998, it is sure to be a classic. 20 songs, with a top notch recording quality. From the same gig there is a video out with the same quality sound, it's a Stonehammer/Hatecrimes split video. When the band returned from England last year, they we're forced to deal with a serious setback, our bassist decided to leave the band to persue personal matters. He served us for a great deal of time, was a good friend, we wish him the best. With that in play, the band has decided to go on as a 3-piece band; we are working on new material for a future Stonehammer project, with a bit of a faster sound With Randon on drums, Tony on guitar, and Griffin back on bass (after 10 years) the band is finally clicking. It's very different now, faster, tighter, and more energetic, we're having some fun with it for a change, so we'll see what comes of it! Also in the works is an Official Stonehammer Website. It will be full of Info, pics, artwork from Griffin, and much, much more. We look forward to the challenge! 88!

Loyalty: have had a quiet year this year, but have been in the studio, recording their Debut Album "ST GEORGE FOR ENGLAND" and a rip roaring gig in Hounslow.

In the meantime the band performed live in southern France on the 21st of June with Arianrhod, Blockhaus, Reconquista, Lusitanoi and Estandarte88. Under a raging heat the band gave it's best at around 2 o'clock in the morn in honour of the summer solstice, with a shortened set however since at 3 at night all music had to be silenced! At the 9th of august Stormwolf will perform again at the Kastelein in Brugge in for the marriage of 2 Bruggian comrades! They have also recorded a cover of Thulë from the mighty Legion88 for a tribute CD that will appear later on this year on French Streetfighting records. Contact: Cormanthor88@hotmail.com

A second guitarist has given the band a more powerful sound and brings out the very best in them! They have also recorded a full cd, which will be out very soon! The band also recorded a LÉgion88 cover, Skinhead, for the tribute on Streetfighting records. Contact: dekastelein@skynet.be

Crusade: Crusade have been busy gigging this year and have secured a solid line up, they have played for Central B+H, Commitatus and for Whitelaw in Heanor, they will also play at this years ISD memorial. Their third album "THE STORY GOES ON" has just been released by Rampage productions, and they are already beginning plans for the next album as well as more gigging, crusade would like to thank all the people who have supported them.

Stormwolf, and Les Vilains: members have started an unyet unnamed project bringing a good old RAC sound like English Rose and other

Kwelhekse: the NSBM band finally has it's new website up and running again after the first one got hacked by commie metal scum and got banned from their server a year ago. Contact: Vlaamslegioen@yahoo.co.uk

Nemesis: are off and running again with a new drummer ex Warhammer man, John has continued with his ballads, all for good causes.

Gods of War: a new NSBM label/distro has arisen. It will focus solely on NS black metal, Nationalistic metal and real pagan metal. Reason for this initiative is that too many NS distros and labels make good money on the back of hardworking and honest NS bands and leave it all in their pockets instead of redirecting it to the movement. It will function as a stronghold for all the dedicated. First up will be a compilation cd promoting the Flemish scene featuring songs Tilarids, Kythrol, Elfenbloed, Heimat, Theudho, Volkermoord and Kwelhekse (a total of 10 bands). Contact: Vlaamslegioen@yahoo.co.uk

Whitelaw: we've been to Germany 3 times this year and France once. On home soil we've played in Hitchin, Crayford, Heanor and Croydon. Also the band travelled to Belgium to attend an N.S meeting where a speaker from the British Movement gave an excellent speech.

Arianrhod: are a new French band that has arisen from the Paris region. They already played a debut gig on the 21st of June and have recorded a mini cd, which people who like their RAC a bit spiced up with metal will adore!! The mini cd will also appear as a split with a Hungarian band. Contact: arian_resistance@hotmail.com

Defiance: is a new Swindon based band, led by Whitey original lead singer for Warlord, and will be spreading the word near you soon, check em out.

Eye of Odin: a quiet year for the boys with baby duties taking precedent until August, when they unleashed themselves upon an unsuspecting Switzerland with new material and thirst for the fight!

Steelcapped Strength: have played Germany, France, Finland and Belgium, and are planning to do some recording for SCS very soon. The current line up is 'Bisson-singer/guitarist, Knicken-drums and Dieter-Bass /backing vocals. Soon we will have a second guitarist, Roger 'axekiller' from Sweden.

Conquest: continue to practice and with their initial line up all in tow should start yielding the musical sword during the summer months, a possible deal with Rampage in the offing.

T.M.F: the Jonsey new band has left the project floor and rehearsals have started, an early first viewing will be at the I.S.D. or maybe later in the year.

Albion: are currently looking for members to consolidate their line up, and are currently negotiating a possible project with American band Intimidation One.

Selbststeller: have released a new CD entitled "Sound of Civil War" and will be due out in august on Front Records.

Youngland: have lost their bassist Wade who has been replaced by the lead singer of Plunder and Pillage!, a new top secret project is on the cards as well.

Nordfront: have a new release on Barracuda Rec. titled "Gefangen im Fadenkreuz".

Odem (ex Carpe Diem): also have a new release out. For more information: www.odem.info.

Saxon RAC Zine: FOIER FREI! will be out soon with Section88, Verszerz`des interviews and much more from the German and international scene.† Best Soldiers 3: should have been released some years ago by Movement Rec. But will now be put out by Ragnar`k Records from South Germany. Bands will be: Storm (Sweden), Letzte Instanz (Deutschland), Honour Guard (Australia), K88 (Poland), Totenkopf (Sweden) and Excessive Force (Canada).

Skinhead Injustice: 31 Jul 03 A German skinhead was sentenced to six months in prison for inciting racial hatred by having a Totenkopf tattooed on his head. The Berlin court heard that the 26-year-old roof tiler had been spotted by police at a city railway station on January 29, 2000, ahead of a planned neo-Nazi protest against the building of a Holocaust memorial. Police said he had tried to hide the tattoo, a copy of the emblem of Hitler's elite SS troops, with his jacket collar after he was noticed. Displaying Nazi symbols in public is an offence in Germany.

NEWS FROM THE FRONTLINE

The Brotherhood has continued in its worldwide capacity and the global co-operation is now at an all time high, especially amongst the Northern European Divisions, the communication and cross country organisation involved in the September I.S.D.s has cemented the bridges already made, Blood & Honour has never been so active, we have to continue this work. Divisions more interested in just making "net friends" or finding concert venues abroad will be left behind and as we are now seeing, life is hard without the brotherhoods backing unless your solely an internet affair who just sell merchandise copying our name for personal financial gain, but those toe rags will also be eventually rooted from all decent comrades ranks. Being a part of the Brotherhood named Blood & Honour is hard work and anyone looking for an easy ride or personal glory is surplus to our requirements.

We welcome Greece/Hellas into the fold and ask everyone to welcome them and begin working with them, the more united we are the more we can achieve and we have an awful long way to go, but we're pointed in the right direction and were marching together, let anyone stand in our way at their own peril. Hail Blood & Honour, for there is only one!

B&H Pennines Arise: To all B&H readers in the north of England following the success of last years Ian Stuart memorial gig in the east Lancs. area it has been decided to form a new blood & honour division for comrades in living in the shadow of the Pennine hills. Well, here we are the Pennine division, our aim to unite comrades in the York's and Lancs areas. Our numbers have already doubled in just a few short months by word of mouth alone, in the future we aim to bring back gigs and socials to this long forgotten area proving to all that there is an alternative to the enforced multiculturalism under which we are forced to live at zog's will these days. Interested for info contact the p.o box below inclosing s.a.e
B&H PENNINE DIVISION, PO BOX 230, GARFORTH, LEEDS, LS25 2WY.

East London B&H: are at full strength with the release of imprisoned members, this hard working active division is always open to new recruits, but hard work awaits. Any one wishing to join the fight can do so eastlondonbh@hotmail.com.

B&H Prisoner Support: B&H is still running the P.O.W initiative in GB, by sending anyone who wishes B&H, if they are incarcerated for Nationalist crimes, those in for anti social behaviour need not apply. Sadly we have to stress our resources do not stretch as yet, to be able to offer this to comrades jailed abroad, we just haven't got the finances to meet this demand. We sincerely apologise to those writing in and our thoughts are with you, we hope you understand. 14/88

B&H Axis: many domestic Divisions and some from mainland Europe are now using the Axis very effectively to help their causes, many are not, this facility is there for all not just B&H, use every weapon at hand. Info, gig adverts news should be sent to axis@bloodandhonourworldwide.co.uk

The Order: support the noble cause, its what we stand for, information and an onward update in the fight to free the Order at: <http://www.freetheorder.com/>

Plaid Cymru (Welsh Nationalist Party): (a left wing group) vice-president Dafydd Iwan faced calls to quit after claiming English people were fleeing to Wales to get away from immigrants. In a speech at the National Eisteddfod, the Gwynedd councillor, who is running for the party's presidency, said people were moving to Wales to "avoid all the Pakistanis and all these Indians who have moved to English towns". "That is the truth of it, ask them. They are coming to Wales to avoid immigration. The situation has got worse.".....will he be allowed to say the truth, or lose his position for such a dastardly act!

Ethnic Cleansing: 7/10/2003 Ulster, - Immigrant families are being systematically driven out by "Blood and Thunder" units associated with Loyalist groups, according to the "Equality Commission". In the latest incident a group of ten men attacked the home of a "mixed race" family with iron bars and baseball bats and beat the door down and ordered the couple and their six children to leave the country. They complied.

They are not the first family to be driven out, though news reports would not estimate how many immigrants have left.

Victory for David Irving: Melbourne Australia - the Jewish Community Council of Victoria, lost an attempt to impose an injunction prohibiting the display of a film by David Irving which highlights the Jewish community's behind the scenes scheming to deny him entry to Australia to speak to and meet the Australian people in 1993.

Skinhead Russia arise: there are 20,000 skinheads across Russia and about 5000 of them live in the second largest city of St. Petersburg, the Moscow times reports. Valery Komarov, an interior Ministry official believes that there are 2,500 skinheads in Moscow headed by 100 leaders, while 5000 skins in St. Petersburg belong to 70 different groups. The number of media reports about racially motivated attacks has soared in recent months, only 16 skinheads were convicted last year.

Rat Catcher: 7/8/03, Real IRA leader Michael McKevitt was today sentenced to 20 years in prison for directing the organisation behind the Omagh bomb atrocity. The 53-year-old was also given six years, to run concurrently, for membership of the Republican paramilitary group.....capital punishment, bring back!

Women for Aryan Unity worldwide: has just completed their latest "Aryan Prisoner Raffle / Fundraiser" we managed to raise over $600 for 8 prisoners located within the USA, we would like to thank everyone who helped especially B&H Vlaanderen - Groen Rechts and Micetrap Records who helped us raise the aforementioned money. Rudolf Hess Memorial March 2003 "Rudolf Hess Unforgotten" Wunsiedel 2003

Once again, the nationalistic lawyer, our comrade Jürgen Rieger had made it possible, the European National Resistance was granted the right to march for the honour of the martyr of peace, Rudolf Hess. This year our enemies in red front and reaction forced us to go from court to court, to the highest level, to get permission to march. A result that showed even nationalists have some rights in this so-called democratic state. This was an important legal victory for us after 2001 and 2002. In 2004 it should be much easier now and our foreign comrades can book and arrange their journeys, safe in the knowledge we will march!

But back to Saturday the 16th, one day before the anniversary of the cowardly murder of a 93-year-old man who was in his 46th year in prison. The march is always the Saturday before the 17th.

After spiteful roadblocks and searches by the police at every road going to Wunsiedel, everybody met at a parking lot adjacent to a big lawn. Shirts and skin of many comrades were taped over to cover tattoos, numbers, letters and symbols, because there is "no censorship" in this "Democracy". But the sun was shining, it was real "Führer-Wetter" and there was enough to eat and drink and everyone was in a good mood. Then the program of the day started with ballads and speeches by comrades coming from almost every white country in Europe and the U.S.A. They all gave their salutes – only in words, of course, and praised the heroic flight by Rudolf Hess to stop the brothers war, his martyrdom in Spandau-prison, Berlin and his murder in 1987. In the afternoon nearly 4000 comrades, a lot of women and also senior citizens formed the rows for the march. A march in silence, only classical music was to be heard played through speakers and the many flags from the different countries where people had come from were flown, to show respect to this European hero. Also a lot of banners were shown with slogans praising Rudolf Hess.

Pride and honour was everywhere in the air and on the whole route of the march. Except one place in the city-centre where less than 400 leftwing idiots were screaming and shouting, but of course they had no chance to provoke the disciplined troops of tomorrow. The citizens of Wunsiedel could see very clearly the difference between chaos and light.

They will see it also in 2004 and it will shine brighter and lighter.

BALLAD'S NIGHT WITH STIGGER AND SISCO

On the 14th of June B&H Vlaanderen organised a Ballad's night in Flanders (Belgium).

This time our special guests were Stigger and Sisco. This world famous duo made it a weekend no one will ever forget both musically and professionally. There were about 150 people at the ballad's night but they sang like a thousand SS-Storm troopers!! The pub was packed, yet the atmosphere was ideal!!! Stigger and Sisco sang classics such as "Suddenly", "White Power", "Blood and Honour" and also a set of Brilliant WARLORD-songs!!

Really if you haven't seen them yet and they play near you, don't miss it, it's brilliant!!!

Older Skinhead-people were taken back to the Skrewdriver-days and young people were astonished by this musical storm!!!

Afterwards we all got in deep and excellent discussions with these mighty Anglo-Saxons, a lot of people were so glad they could talk with these guys and I think everybody really got a good feeling from this excellent weekend!

Thanks to Stigger, Sisco, Dick, Suck and Rianne and the complete B&H crew!

Blood and Honour: the soundtrack to a revolution!!! As our good friend from Nottingham says!

BRITISH ULSTER ALLIANCE

A BRIEF INTRODUCTION

The British Ulster Alliance - BUA - was officially formed in October 1999 as a political pressure group to highlight injustices against British/Unionist communities in Northern Ireland, and to bring awareness of such injustices to the attention of the public and to government organisations within Westminster and the devolved assemblies.

Our chief aims are to:

- Support and maintain the union of England, Scotland, Wales and, in particular, Northern Ireland
- Highlight injustices and human-rights abuses against British/Unionist communities in Northern Ireland
- Give financial, political and moral support to British/Unionist communities in Northern Ireland
- Support and encourage the sustenance of British cultures and traditions throughout the United Kingdom, particularly in areas where such customs are threatened by anti-British intolerance

Our membership consists largely of UK mainland residents, all of whom agree to and support the above aims.

The BUA have organised political demonstrations and protests at various locations around the UK in support of residents of Northern Ireland. These locations have included 10 Downing Street where we have also arranged for the handing-in of petitions by residents' groups from besieged communities of Northern Ireland.

Other activities include fund-raising events, regular meetings and an annual educational tour of Unionist communities in Northern Ireland.
